BOERS GRAB GOLD.

Seize an Immense Treasure En Route From Mines to Cape Town, Said to be about $2,500,000

THE SITUATION IS VERY STRAINED.

London, Oct. 4.—The most sensational news from South Africa this morning is a reiteration of yesterday's report of the acquisition by the Transvaal authorities of $2,500,000 in gold, which was on the way to Cape Town from Johannesburg. The Cape Argus asserts that the Boers made the seizure at Verening, the amount being the week's shipment of gold on the way from the Rand to Cape Town, and forwarded the treasure to Pretoria.

The report is also confirmed by a cablegram received today by a mining company in London from their representative, which is to the effect that the train upon which he was traveling from Johannesburg to Cape Town was held up and looted by Boers, who secured $300,000 in gold, the amount being considerably less than the original estimate.

NOTHING TANGIBLE.
There is nothing very tangible in today's war news, but the situation remains as strained as ever, unless hope may be derived from the apparent fact that the forces on the frontier are regarded by high authority as wholly defensive for the present and from the statement that J. H. Hofmeyer, the Afrikaner leader in Cape Colony, is still prepared to endeavor to secure the adhesion of the Transvaal government to the "irreducible minimum" proposed at the Bloemfontein conference to President Kruger by Sir Alfred Milner, the British high commissioner, if the imperial government will stand by the high commissioner's original proposal.

CAJARS ARE PLENTIFUL.
The stock exchange was influenced during the opening hours today by vague rumors that Queen Victoria had cabled President Kruger and President Steyn holding out the olive branch and by a report that the Boers had been defeated in a small engagement. Prices rose, but there was a speedy relapse when both stories were discredited. Sir Wm. Vernon-Harcourt, the distinguished liberal statesman, member of parliament for West Monmouthshire, has another slashing attack in today's papers upon the policy of the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain.

He reiterates his original statement that Mr. Chamberlain's assertion that the Transvaal refused to redress the grievances of the Outlanders is the reverse of the case, and he insists that Great Britain is responsible for "slamming the door in the face of President Kruger just when arrangements were approaching a settlement."

SITUATION GRAVE.
Advices from Cape Town announce that General Sir Geo. Stewart White, V. C., who will command the British forces in Natal, will proceed to Durban today. On his arrival at Cape Town he found the situation on the Natal border so grave that he wired for immediate transportation for himself and staff to Durban, and the British second class cruiser Forte was placed at his disposal.

A London news agency publishes the following dispatch from Volksrust, Transvaal, dated Oct. 3: "An unconfirmed report is in circulation here that the time allowed the British troops to withdraw from the Transvaal border will expire at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and that the failure to comply with the demand will be considered tantamount to a declaration of war."

The British foreign office this afternoon assured the Associated Press that absolutely nothing was known there of any Transvaal demand for the withdrawal of the British troops from the frontier.

LIBERALS FOR WAR.
A meeting of liberal members of the house of commons, including several prominent members of the cabinet, was held this morning at the private residence of the leader of the liberal opposition in the house, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman. The subject under consideration was the government's South African policy, and the meeting resolved to support the government on the re-assembly of parliament, even at the expense of placing the present cabinet in a minority.

conflict with their former colleagues, Sir William Vernon-Harcourt and Mr. John Morely.

ULTIMATUM ALLEGED.
Paris, Oct. 4.—A number of papers say that the Boers have sent an ultimatum to England demanding the withdrawal of the troops from the frontier within forty-eight hours. The papers congratulate President Kruger for coming to this decision.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.
London, Oct. 4.—A London news agency publishes a dispatch from Paris saying it is rumored there that a semi-official exchange of views is proceeding between Russia, France and Germany with reference to the Transvaal crisis.

KRUGER'S FAITH IN GOD.
Pretoria, Oct. 4.—A more extended account of the speech of President Kruger at the adjournment of the raad yesterday is now obtainable. According to a trustworthy report he said: "Everything points to war because a spirit of falsehood has overtaken other countries and because the people of the Transvaal wish to govern themselves. Although thousands may come to attack us, we have nothing to fear; the Lord is the final arbiter and He will decide. "Bullets came by the thousands at the time of the Jamieson raid, but the burghers were untouched. Over a hundred were killed on the other side, showing that the Lord directed our bullets. The Lord rules the world."

Mr. J. M. A. Wolmarans, one of the two non-official members of the executive council, said he hoped that when the raad's reassembled they would be without a convention and would be a free people. God, he declared, had often used England to bring the burghers back to the faith of their forefathers. In the course of his speech he exclaimed: "England has refused everything, even arbitration."

THE PRESIDENT COMING.
WILL ARRIVE HERE THURSDAY EVENING.

Will Remain Here Five Minutes—Travels by Special Train.

Local Wabash officials have been notified of the coming of the presidential party over that line. Mr. McKinley's train is due here at 7:25 o'clock Thursday evening and will remain here five minutes. The president is out upon a pleasure jaunt. His train will be delivered to the Wabash by the Baltimore & Ohio at Defiance and will be turned over to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy at Quincy. En route Mr. McKinley will stop a few minutes in all the larger places and in many of them make short speeches from the car platform. His train will consist of five Pullman palace cars.

LAMP EXPLODED.
Tuesday evening a small lamp exploded at the home of Mrs. H. McClellie, 70 West Wayne street, setting fire to a lace curtain. The department was called, but before it reached the scene the flames had been extinguished. A gentleman who assisted in pulling down the curtain had his hands severely burned. Damage to the residence was confined to the loss of the curtain.

WILL GO IT ALONE.
Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 4.—The local district assembly of the International Longshoremen's association has voted to withdraw from the United Trades and Labor council. The trouble seems to have been caused by the attitude of the United Trades and Labor council in regard to the national strike of the liberal party in

of whom are organized as local No. 17 and who are affiliated with the International Longshoremen's association. It is said that at its last meeting the United Trades and Labor council refused to honor the credentials of the delegates chosen to represent local No. 17 in the trades council and that admission to the meeting was refused them. The dock workers number about 7,000 men.

TO TAKE STRIKERS' PLACES.
Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 4.—Sixty blacksmiths and machinists arrived here today over the Pennsylvania railroad from New York, having been engaged to work at the Cramp ship building yards. They were met at Broad street station by a committee of strikers, who informed them of the situation at the ship yards. Thirty of the men deserted immediately. The remainder subsequently yielded to the appeals of the workmen when about to board a tug for the ship yard.

THE BRITONS ARE SATISFIED.
SETTLEMENT OF BOUNDARY IS PLEASING.
Regard It As a Vindication, But of More Value As Strengthening Friendship.

London, Oct. 4.—The award of the Anglo-Venezuelan boundary arbitration commission is regarded by the afternoon papers as eminently satisfactory from the English point of view, but it is hardly proof of the practicability of universal arbitration. The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Without doubt Great Britain has done uncommonly well, as is proved by the comments of former President Harrison. If it were not already sufficiently obvious, it is now made clear that arbitration has shown the disposition of the government to be idyllic and members of the supreme a sinful and unnatural quarrel. This must have its impression in America and thus must have sown good seed, which has already grown into a flourishing plant."

The St. James Gazette says: "The outcome is not the result of arbitration, but of a friendly compromise, as stated by former President Harrison. We have not got all we wanted, nor all to which we are entitled, but arbitration has resulted in giving British Guiana an indisputable title to the northwestern district, where her future lies. Everyone will gladly join in the universal congratulations to the tribunal upon the happy result of difficult and delicate labors."

The Westminster Gazette says: "The result is decidedly satisfactory. The contentions of both parties have been set aside, but the substantial point is that Great Britain gets more than on various occasions she had expressed herself willing to concede to Venezuela. The practical feature of the case is that we have substantially succeeded against Venezuela, while vastly improving our relations with the United States. The award and the rapidity with which it was rendered cannot fail to give a strong impetus to international arbitration."

The Globe, adopting its usual offensive tone, says: "For once arbitration has not operated to our advantage. There are others besides the Venezuelans who should now recognize that Great Britain will not suffer what she considers her rights to be subjected to the terrorism of warlike menace, whether in one part of the world or in another, whether by a great power or a small state."

CANNIFF COMING TONIGHT.
A telegram to Hon. R. C. Bell this afternoon announced the coming of President Canniff, of the Nickel Plate, tonight. His mission is business connected with the railway company of which he is the head.

NEWSBOYS' PARADE.
All the newsboys in the city who desire to take part in the parade on Thursday morning will assemble at the corner of Clinton and Washington streets at 8:30 o'clock sharp.

RUSSIA. No one drives there without having a thin cord with a running noose around the neck of the animal. When the animal bolts the cord is pulled and the horse stops as soon as it feels the pressure on the windpipe. A French society of charities is seeking to establish a free delivery in Moscow.

WITH HEAVY LOSS

FILIPINOS ARE DRIVEN BY THE AMERICANS.

OTIS REPORTS HIS FIGHTS

REBELS HAD MANY KILLED IN ENGAGEMENTS.

AMERICANS LOSE OFFICERS

ADMIRAL WATSON REPORTS NAVAL OPERATIONS.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—General Otis has cabled the war department the following account of the recent sharp engagements with the insurgents: "Manila, Oct. 4.—Captain Poore, Sixth infantry, attacked entrenched robber band in western Negros 1st inst.; Lieut. Grubb, Sixth infantry, killed; Dr. Shillock and three enlisted men slightly wounded; twenty of enemy killed, including two leading robbers; twelve rifles, large supply of ammunition and stores captured; Poore's action highly commended. "Insurgents west of Bacoor and Imus, Luzon, attacked line of communication; Captain Eldridge, Fourteenth infantry, killed; Lieutenant Burgess, Fifth artillery, wounded; number of enlisted men killed and wounded, ten or twelve; full report not yet received. Enemy driven west and south with a reported heavy loss. "Yesterday enemy attacked Calamba; driven off some distance into country; our casualties, two enlisted men killed, seven wounded. Sixty insurgents killed; number wounded unknown. "Fourth cavalry reconnaissance yesterday from San Fernando in direction of Santa Anna and Arayat; one man killed; no other casualties. Insurgents driven with considerable loss. "Advanced picket post, three men, out from San Antonio and Santa Rita, west of San Fernando, killed yesterday by bolo men; result of carelessness or overconfidence in natives. Otis."

A later message from General Otis states that Captain Eldridge died of his wounds on the evening of October 2.

NAVAL OPERATIONS.
Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—The navy department has received the following from Admiral Watson: "Manila, Oct. 4.—Cornwell, with Callan, Mindoro. Gardoque, Basco and armed lighter, also landing force of marines from Cavite, blue jackets from Baltimore, Petrel and Helena, entered Orani river Monday morning, raised Urdaneta, gunboats protecting working party. Two hundred men under Cornwell landed, scoured neighborhood and town. Insurgents fled, firing scattering shots. Town abandoned, partially burned by shells. No casualties. Brought Urdaneta to Cavite today. Propeller and shaft in place; smokestack recovered. Will refit. Watson."

FEEL HOPEFUL OF WINNING.
BRITONS LIKE SHAMROCK'S PERFORMANCE.
Newspapers Voice the New Hope That the Challenger Will Bring Back the Cup.

London, Oct. 4.—The momentary disappointment that the first day's contest for the America's cup should have resulted in no race has been followed by a feeling of satisfaction that the Shamrock has shown herself a worthy challenger, and hope runs high that she will wipe out a long record of defeats. Among yachtsmen great admiration is expressed for the way in which Captain Hogarth is reported to have handled the yacht. The afternoon papers comment in much the same terms as the morning papers. All think that the chances of the Shamrock and the Columbia are about equal and all are gratified at the extreme friendliness displayed by the Americans. The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Never have the qualities so peculiar to Anglo-Saxons—chivalrous determination to fight a contest to the end on a fair field and without favor—been more conspicuous than they were in yesterday's race."

The marquis of Dufferin, commander of the Royal Ulster Yacht club, replying to the Associated Press telegram, speaks as follows: "From yesterday's abortive race it is quite impossible to form a reliable opinion as to the result of future contests."

SAYS COLUMBIA WILL WIN.
New York, Oct. 4.—John R. Spear, the nautical expert, says: "In spite of the fact that a lack of wind prevented the yachts covering their course within the time limit, and in spite of the manifest superiority of Captain Hogarth's seamanship, the details of the trial show that when the wind comes alike to both the Columbia outruns, out-reaches and outpoints the Shamrock in winds from fresh down to light. The Shamrock will not get the cup."

WHO WILL BE THE NEW JUDGE
W. J. VESEY AND J. B. HARPER APPEAR TO LEAD.
Attorney Heaton Steps Aside in the Interests of His Partner—Others Suggested.

The successor to Judge C. M. Dawson on the superior court bench will be a republican and already the friends of two or three candidates are at work in the interest of their candidate. The law provides that in case of a vacancy the governor shall appoint a successor, who will hold until the next general election, which, in this case, will be in November, 1900. A successor must then be chosen and as soon as the winner qualifies he will take the office and fill out the unexpired term, which ends November 24, 1902. The first republican attorney approached this morning said to The Sentinel that the only sure way to determine the number of candidates was to count the republican attorneys, but this isn't a fact. The names most frequently suggested are W. J. Vesey and James B. Harper. Colonel Robertson's name was suggested, as was also that of William Leonard, but it is stated authoritatively that the two latter will not ask for the appointment. A Sentinel reporter talked to Mr. Vesey, who stated without hesitancy that he was a candidate for the appointment. O. N. Heaton, Mr. Vesey's partner, was a candidate in 1898, but he has stepped out of the way and is for Mr. Vesey. Mr. Harper said to The Sentinel that it was too soon to talk about the appointment, but B. F. Harper asserts that his brother is a candidate. Other republicans are also using their influence in behalf of Mr. Harper and it appears now that the appointment is certain to fall to Mr. Vesey or Mr. Harper. The former is a member of the state central committee and will have some substantial backing. Mr. Harper once ran for judge and his friends claim now that he should have the appointment in payment for the sacrifice made in that race. Mr. Harper himself says that it is a question whether it would pay an attorney to give up a lucrative practice for one year on the bench. It is expected that the appointment will be made immediately after Judge Dawson's funeral. By next Monday there will probably be a republican judge in the superior court.

JUDGE DAWSON DEAD

The Eminent Jurist Yields to Disease at a Time When Hope Had Begun to Rise.

ELOQUENT TRIBUTES OF ASSOCIATES.

Hon. Charles M. Dawson, judge of the superior court of Allen county, prominent as a citizen, eminent as a lawyer and distinguished as a jurist, died this morning at his home on West Wayne street.

The end came at 5:45 o'clock. While Judge Dawson's condition has been recognized as critical for some days, the voiceless messenger came just at a time when an apparent improvement in the patient's condition had buoyed up the faltering hopes of loving friends, who were nearly exhausted from unceasing vigils at the bedside of the husband and father. During the early evening there seemed to be such a decided gain in Judge Dawson's condition that all were greatly encouraged. The distressing conditions from which the distinguished patient had been suffering seemed to abate, and for the first time in many days he appeared to be comparatively comfortable. The difficulty in breathing, which had necessitated his being propped up with pillows in bed, passed away, and he was able to lie down in complete repose. At 11 o'clock the family retired for the first time since Judge Dawson's illness, leaving him in the care of the trained nurse, and with a feeling that the turning point in the disease had been reached and that he was on the road to convalescence.

Shortly after midnight, however, there was a change for the worse, and the alarming features of the disease returned anew. Dr. Myers was hastily summoned, but it was apparent that the patient could battle but little longer against the encroachments of his malady. No efforts of medical skill could stay the progress of the decline, and the saddened faces of those around him bespoke a realization of the approaching end as plainly as words could have told it. Through his entire illness Judge Dawson has seemed impressed with a presentiment of its fatal consequences, and soon after midnight he told his family he believed the end was near. He sank steadily and peacefully until just at the dawning of a new day death conquered in the struggle, the soul took its upward flight and Judge Dawson's active and useful career was ended.

Bowed at his bedside were the loving wife, who has never ceased her watchful vigil from the moment his illness seemed of a serious nature; Ronald Dawson, the judge's only son, and Miss Hadjie, the only daughter, besides a number of intimate friends of the family, the nurses and medical attendants. The patient retained consciousness and recognized his friends almost to the last moment. During the early evening there had been periods of restful sleep, and during the closing hours he seemed to suffer very little. Through that sorrowful vigil he seemed to realize fully that life's end was near, yet he remained calm and composed as one whose life has been of best endeavors and who awaits the close with confidence and hope. As the feeble spark of life was all but faded he turned slightly upon his pillow and in a moment breathed his last.

Judge Dawson's death was due to Bright's disease, and the acute form of his illness has been of comparatively brief duration. For the past year, however, his health has been impaired, and it is now evident the insidious malady was slowly creeping about him long before its presence was suspected, and before its serious nature was recognized. Last summer the judge, with Mrs. Dawson and their daughter, took an extended western trip in the hope that the change of scene and climate would be of benefit to him, but little relief was secured. After their return some weeks ago Judge Dawson resumed his work upon the bench of the superior court, but it was evident to those who were with him that he was far from well. Two weeks ago he was obliged to relinquish professional duties, but not until a week later was he compelled to take to his bed. His physician diagnosed his trouble as Bright's disease, but it was hoped relief might be obtained from the acute stage which threatened, and that the patient might again be able to get about. Despite all efforts to this end he grew steadily worse, and for some days his condition has been alarming. It was realized that the end was near, though the sudden turn following the improvement last evening was a most severe shock, and thousands of saddened hearts today tell eloquently of the love and respect and esteem which the people held for their distinguished fellow-citizen.

The immediate cause of Judge Dawson's death was uraemic poisoning which resulted from Bright's disease. The funeral arrangements have not been determined upon and announcement of the services will be made at a later date.

The History of music brings forward many curious and strange instruments.

There are thousands of ways in which man has learned to produce a harmony of sweet sounds, but in these days a piano does more to give pleasure to more people than any other one instrument.

A piano is always a good investment provided it is a good piano.

The Packard Piano meets all conditions and fulfills all expectations.

HIS FLAG IS DOWN.

ADMIRAL DEWEY HAS LEFT THE CRUISER OLYMPIA.

DETACHED FROM HIS SHIP

ORDER IS PURSUANT TO HIS OWN REQUEST.

GOES TO VERMONT MONDAY

THE OLYMPIA IS TO BE GIVEN EXTENSIVE REPAIRS.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—Admiral Dewey made an early start today to fill a number of engagements. After breakfast he joined one of his associate officers for a stroll out Connecticut avenue, and on returning, proceeded to the navy department, accompanied by Admiral Farquhar, the new commander of the north Atlantic station, and Captain Lamber-ton, his chief of staff, and a Chinese body servant.

Few people were aware of the admiral's coming, so there was not much of a demonstration when he entered the department.

The admiral went to see Secretary Long and talk over his plans for the immediate future, and as to the present Secretary Long promptly gave notice that the department was willing to give him perfect liberty to do as he pleased.

The admiral was, therefore, at his instance, detached formally from the Olympia after this date.

He will telegraph the executive officer of the ship at Tompkinsville to haul down his flag today, and thus will terminate his connection with the cruiser which for more than two years has been his home.

In accordance with projects already planned, the admiral will go to Vermont Monday as the guest of W. Seward Webb at Shelburne farms, near Burlington.

After a reception at the state capital on the 13th inst., he will go to Boston to attend the reception there in his honor on the 14th inst.

The Olympia will meanwhile have arrived at that place, for her orders issued today are to proceed at once from New York to Boston to be put out of commission and be extensively repaired.

After the Boston ceremonies Admiral Dewey is expected to return to Washington to meet his colleagues of the Philippine commission. Secretary Long today said that the admiral's time probably would be fully occupied in the deliberations of the commission for some months to come and meanwhile, in order to leave him free for this work, he will not be assigned to any naval duties.

Further than this point the department has not yet undertaken to define its plans for Admiral Dewey's future.

When all of these details had been arranged, the admiral walked over to the white house to keep an appointment with the president, to discuss the Philippine situation.

The admiral remained with the president an hour. President Schurman, of the Philippine commission, was also at the white house and joined Admiral Dewey as he left the president.

THEY FAVOR DIAZ.

City of Mexico, Oct. 4.—Several hundred prominent citizens met here and initiated measures for holding early next year a national convention to nominate candidates for president and members of the supreme court. This movement is spontaneous and entirely apart from the office-holding class and the sentiment developed in the conferences strongly favors renominating President Diaz. Public sentiment in financial, commercial and manufacturing circles is largely in favor of renominating General Diaz, whose continued presence at the head of affairs is believed to be essential to national progress.

WILL HELP IN OKIO.

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 4.—Governor Stanley has consented to go to Ohio to assist the republicans in the state campaign. The governor will speak October 26, 27 and 28 at places yet to be selected by the state committee.

LEAVES FOR CHICAGO.

N. C. Smith, for a number of years one of the managers of the Temple theater, left Tuesday for Chicago, where he will make his future home. Mr. Smith will be identified with the Mexican Land and Investment company, which also is interested in the zinc mines at Joplin, Mo., and part of Mr. Smith's time will be spent in the Missouri city.

SENTENCE WAS SUSPENDED

AND THE GAY AND WOODS BOYS GIVEN TO PARENTS.

Circuit and Superior Court Have Adjourned for the Week—
Court News.

There was sorrow depicted in Judge O'Rourke's face this morning when immediately after circuit court convened, he announced that none but business of the utmost importance would be transacted this week on account of the death of Judge C. M. Dawson. The case against Isom Ireland, of Woodburn, who is charged with assault with intent to kill, was to have been tried and the jury were in their seats. Judge O'Rourke dismissed the jury and postponed the trial.

The court, however, decided to hear the evidence in the case against Ora Woods and Harold Gay, the boys arrested for entering Noah Fager's saloon and stealing drinkables. Mrs. Woods was present with Judge John Morris and told Judge O'Rourke that a childless cousin living in Pulaski county was desirous of taking her son and promised to send him there the judge suspending sentence. The parents of Harold Gay fought for the freedom of their boy and on their promise to keep him in school and out of mischief the judge also suspended sentence. He lectured the lad and told him he would not be given another chance if brought into court.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Special Judge S. M. Hench convened superior court and ordered the following order to be made on the court records: "And it being suggested that Honorable C. M. Dawson, the regular judge of this court, having died this day, it is ordered that said court stand adjourned until the successor of said judge is appointed and qualified."

WANTS A DIVORCE.

Through her attorney, J. E. Bittinger, Ada E. Stremmel has commenced suit for divorce from William H. Stremmel. The couple were married in June, 1895, and lived together one year, when the complaint alleged the defendant wholly abandoned plaintiff and has since failed to provide for her support. She asks for the custody of their three-year-old daughter and for the right to resume her maiden name, Ada E. Hamilton.

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE.

In the circuit court Diederick W. Gieseking commences suit against Albert H. Steger, Christian Luhrman, Anna Luhrman, Charles Meyers and Anna Meyers to set aside alleged fraudulent conveyance and judgment for $1,400 on note. The plaintiff alleges that Messrs. Luhrman and Steger gave him a note. Later Mr. Luhrman transferred his property to Charles and Anna Meyers, who in turn transferred the property to Anna Luhrman for the purpose of defrauding plaintiff. He asks that conveyance be set aside and that judgment be rendered against Luhrman for $1,400.

NOTES.

Mary C. Brown commences proceedings against Charles H. Dudgeon. The suit is for location of way of necessity.

Judge O'Rourke has issued naturalization papers to Christian Grenewald.

Judge Hench Tuesday afternoon granted Catherine Harring a divorce from Eugene Harring and gave her the custody of their child.

CARNIVAL IS ON.

FALL CELEBRATION GETS UNDER WAY.

FEAST AT CENTLIVRE PARK

ATTRACTS QUITE A LARGE CROWD TODAY.

RACES COMMENCE TOMORROW

GREAT PROGRAM OF STREET ATTRACTIONS.

Calhoun street and other thoroughfares in the downtown section are bathed in a profusion of flags and bunting in honor of the fall celebration, which opened today.

The weather has been most pleasant, and while the crowd in attendance is as yet not up to expectations, the attendance tomorrow and on succeeding days promises to be much better.

A crowd that numbered between three thousand and four thousand people attended the barbecue at Centlivre park today and feasted without money and without price. Only a small crowd was present when the waiters began serving at 11 o'clock, but crowded street cars soon deposited hungry multitudes there and the eatables and other refreshments began to disappear with remarkable celerity. There was an abundance of eatables and other refreshments and the Wayne Tent band discoursed music. The exercises at the park closed at 3 o'clock.

The street program of the carnival proper opened this afternoon at 4 o'clock and the first event was the balloon ascension at the jail flats. At 4:30 Miss Nemo, the lady wonder, was buried alive on Wayne street at a point opposite the Fruit house. The grave had been prepared, the pall bearers were on hand and a large crowd was present to witness the interment. Miss Nemo will remain under ground until Friday afternoon, when she will be resurrected.

The illuminated bicycle parade will be one of the most enjoyable of the public demonstrations. The chairman of the committee, A. L. Randall, says that the parade will develop some entirely new features, and also says there will be more decorated and illuminated bicycles on tonight than were ever before seen on the streets of Fort Wayne. The parade will form at 7:30 o'clock at Harrison and Berry streets, and headed by the Wayne Tent band and Marion Black's automobile, will pass over the following route: East on Berry to Calhoun, to Washington, to Rockhill, to Wayne, to Griffith, to Berry, to Calhoun, to Montgomery, to Barr, to Wayne, to Monroe, to Berry, to Harrison and disband.

THURSDAY'S PROGRAM.

11 a. m. to 1 p. m.—Civic parade through principal streets, forming at Barr and Berry streets; A. M. Schmidt, marshal.

1:30 p. m.—Running and trotting races at Driving park; purses, $400.

MARSHAL OF THE PARADE.
A. M. Schmidt, clerk of the public boards, will be the marshal of the civic and industrial parade on Thursday.

Merchants, manufacturers, business men and civic bodies intending to participate in the parade will report to him at the corner of Wayne and Barr streets before 10 o'clock on Thursday morning. The parade is expected to move promptly at 10 and no delay can be tolerated on account of the presence of the fire department, which can not be kept long from its quarters.

FOOT BALL SATURDAY.

An additional feature for the carnival will be had in the shape of a foot ball game between the Huntington High school foot ball team and Fort Wayne's crack High school team. This year's High school team is the best that has been put on the field for years. Their ability was demonstrated last Saturday when they vanquished a picked team from this city which sailed under the name of the South Waynes. Nothing need be said of the Huntington team, as their reputation is widespread in foot ball circles. Captain Evans, of the High school, is confident of victory and a good, close game may be expected. The game will take place at League park at the foot of Calhoun street Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp.

A typewriter invented by an Englishman has a device by which vertical columns of figures can be written as readily as they can be set in type. By means of a special line space key the operator is enabled to write all over the paper, the whole width of the paper, or in narrow columns at will.

People marvel at the mechanism of the human body, with its 492 bones and sixty arteries. But man is simple in this respect compared with the carp. That remarkable fish moves no fewer than 4,386 bones and muscles every time it breathes. It has 4,390 veins, to say nothing of its ninety-nine muscles.

SESSSIONS NEARLY CLOSED.

LAST DAY OF DISTRICT CONVENTION OF I. C. M. S.

Resolutions of Thanks Are Adopted—
Andrews Chosen for the Next Convention.

This morning's session of the Indiana Christian Missionary society of the Fifth district of Indiana, opened at 9 o'clock this morning with a praise service led by Rev. P. J. Rice. At the close of the devotional service the different committees presented their reports. The committee on nominations presented the following report: For president, W. T. Wells, of Huntington, Ind.; for vice president, W. F. Groom, of Wabash; for secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Mitten, of Fort Wayne.

This report was unanimously adopted and the officers were elected for the ensuing year. L. L. Carpenter and W. T. Wells, the committee on resolutions, presented the following, which was adopted:

"Resolved, That we express our hearty thanks and appreciation for the many marks of kindness and hospitality extended the visiting delegates of the Fifth District convention by the two congregations of the Christian churches in Fort Wayne, the West Jefferson and the West Creighton avenue churches, in opening their homes and hearts and altars to us while in their midst. Second, That we desire to express our thanks to the daily papers of this city for the notices they have given from day to day of the proceedings of the convention during its sittings. That we extend a vote of thanks to Brother Rice for his faithful five years' service. That one general collection be taken instead of three and that it be devoted to paying the general expenses."

The committee on place of meeting reported in favor of Andrews, Ind., and it was decided to hold the next meeting there.

This afternoon's session was opened at 2 o'clock with a praise service, after which the following papers were read:

"Indiana State Work; Eight Hundred Contributing Schools and $3,000 for 1900," by E. N. Tucker; "A County Superintendent for Christian Sunday Schools; the Need," by John Dalman; "Southern Indiana's Cry; Shall It be Answered? How? When?" by W. T. Wells; "Parliament on Financial Support of State Sunday School Work," by G. E. Ireland; "Shall We Have a Union Graded Sunday School System? Why? How? When?" by T. J. Legg; "Shall We Have Graded Sunday School Lessons Corresponding to a Graded Sunday School System?" led by E. L. Frazier.

After the reading of the papers the meeting adjourned for recess.

The evening session will open at 7:15. The reports of committees will be read after which a sermon will be preached by Rev. A. W. Connor, of Indianapolis, and the subject will be, "Thou and Thy House, or How Shall We Save the Boy?" This evening's meeting will close the convention.

FORCED TO LEAVE.

PRESIDENT ANDRADE WILL QUIT VENEZUELA.

WILL COME TO NEW YORK

ENGAGES PASSAGE FOR HIMSELF AND FAMILY.

REVOLUTIONISTS WILL WIN

GENERAL CASTRO IS NOW IN FRONT OF CARACAS.

New York, Oct. 4.—A cable dispatch has been received in this city from Caracas to the effect that the president, Ignacio Andrade, has engaged passage for himself and family on the Red line steamer Philadelphia, which leaves Guayara on the 10th for Ponce, Porto Rico, and New York. It is generally believed he will go to Ponce. If this dispatch is authentic, it means that President Andrade regards himself defeated by the insurgents under General Caprio Castro and will leave the country to save himself. Later the advice received here say that General Castro and his advance guard are at El Valle, which is only three miles from Caracas.

General Castro, however, has declared against entering the capital, as a battle there would entail the loss of the lives of many disinterested persons. He wishes, therefore, to engage the government troops just outside the city. The latter, however, show no disposition to meet the rebels in a decisive battle.

The revolutionary forces have been augmented by the followers of Gen. Jose Manuel Hernandez, who is now in prison in Caracas. Thus far the latter have fought independently of the Castro forces. Gen. Samuel Acosta, one of General Hernandez's leading officers, has been appointed military governor of the state of Caraboo, which has fallen into rebel hands. General Acosta is the person who killed President Crespo in battle.

There are now said to be nearly 2,000 political prisoners in Caracas. The news of insurgent success, it is asserted, has done injury to the credit of the present government. A local firm received a cable order last week from the Venezuelan government for 3,000 rifles, 100,000 cartridges and one Hotchkiss rapid firing gun. The firm, it is declared, refused to make the shipment unless they received pay before delivery.

SHAMROCK LEAVES.

Sir Thomas Lipton does not bet, but he is perfectly willing to stake a friend who does.—St. Louis Republic.

Although Shamrock's new steel mast has been "stopped," it doesn't follow by any means that she has a "cakewalk" ahead of her in October.—Boston Globe.

There is another thing pretty certain about Sir Thomas Lipton. The paragraphers can't have anywhere near as much fun out of his name as they did out of Dumayev's.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

From this time on the Columbia and the Shamrock will be the cynosure of all eyes on the water. No more petticoats, and no more hiding. The contestants are now in the open, and everybody will have a chance to size them up according to his own taste.—Boston Herald.

The discovery is announced that Shamrock has a fin keel that will stick in the mud at the depth of 25 feet. It is easy to see where yacht racing is leading. People will soon be sailing around on gigantic knife blades, balanced vertically and sailed by the aid of balloons.—Chicago Journal.

In town. We have just received 20 dozen "Faultless" colored shirts in Fluer-de-lis patterns. Some have only four or five of the Fluer-de-lis figures on the bosom but they are over an inch in diameter. They are new—they are different from anything shown in the city. They are new in the east. We have also just received two cases of "Waterhouse" neckwear

PRICE IS NOTHING

Compared in importance to the real question of health, the question of dental work is a minor one. The price you pay must necessarily be high enough to secure the best material and pay a fair profit for work that requires skill. Else what you get will be a cheap imitation. Our fair charges are a little more than the lowest in the business—cheaper than any in the city.

Eczema!
The Only Cure.

Eczema is more than a skin disease, and no skin remedies can cure it. The doctors are unable to effect a cure, and their mineral mixtures are damaging to the most powerful constitution. The whole trouble is in the blood, and Swift's Specific is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated blood diseases.

Eczema broke out on my daughter, and continued to spread until her head was entirely covered. She was treated by several good doctors, but grew worse, and the dreadful disease spread to her face. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many patent medicines were taken, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished, her head began to heal. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now sixteen years old, and has a magnificent growth of hair. No sign of the dreadful disease has ever returned.

H. T. SHORE,
2704 Lucas Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

Don't expect local applications of soaps and salves to cure Eczema. They reach only the surface, while the disease comes from within. Swift's Specific is the only cure and will reach the most obstinate case. It is far ahead of all similar remedies, because it cures cases which are beyond their reach. S. S. S. is purely vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no blood, mercury or other mineral.

The board of safety met last evening, but transacted no important business. Arrangements are being made for the locating of the four new patrol boxes.

A party of Huntington people drove to the city yesterday and attended the entertainment and masked ball given by the Sons of Veterans in the evening.

John Cleaver, whose home is on South Calhoun street, was taken suddenly ill on Tuesday and was removed to the St. Joseph hospital.

Mr. Cleaver is suffering from intestinal trouble.

Dr. M. F. Schick was granted a permit to build a two-story brick dwelling on lot 1, block 30, Ewing's addition, for $4,000. The residence will be one of the handsomest in that part of the city.

Edward Baltes returned Tuesday from a trip to New York, during which he attended the Dewey festivities. Mr. Baltes says the land parade on Saturday was a spectacle never to be forgotten.

May Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Weaver, is ill at the home of her parents, on Spy Run avenue, with scarlet fever. Dr. Chambers, her attending physician, has reported the case to the health authorities and the house has been quarantined.

There will be preaching in the Hubler's Union chapel, four miles north on the Goshen road, Sunday, October 8th, at 2:30 p. m., by Rev. P. J. Rice, pastor of the West Jefferson street Church of Christ of Fort Wayne. The public are invited to attend.

Huntington Herald: "Ed Nifer is back from Fort Wayne, where he has been for the past three weeks taking treatment for an affliction of his eyes. Ed reports the treatment very beneficial, and that while his eyes are still weak, they are much better than before he took the treatment."

Tomorrow evening Division No. 3, A. O. E., will meet in regular session. After the regular meeting the members of the division will indulge in a "smoker," preparations for which have been making for several weeks. This will be the first of a series of entertainments given by the division for its members during the fall and winter months.

The Allen County Medical society held a largely attended meeting Tuesday evening at its hall, in the App building. Dr. L. P. Drayner presented a paper on "Diagnosis of Tuberculosis," and Dr. E. J. McOscar's subject was "Treatment of Tuberculosis." Both received the closest attention and proved of much benefit to the members of the society.

The council committee on rules, regulations and ordinances met last evening and decided to recommend favorably three ordinances. One prohibits city employees working on legal holidays, another regulates the building of partition fences, and the third prohibits the sale of firearms to children and also prohibits minors from carrying firearms. The latter ordinance is recommended for the purpose of preventing youngsters from owning air guns, etc.

A large number of the pumpkins that have been entered for the Indiana Furniture company's contest have arrived and are now at the company's store on Calhoun street. In numbers and size the pumpkins this year promise to outdo those of last year and specimens have been sent from all parts of Allen county and from several adjacent counties. The contest will be decided on Saturday afternoon and a party of newspaper men will act as judges.

Grand Master Workman T. D. Neal of the A. O. U. W., is in Fort Wayne for a few days on a visit in the interest of the order.

The death rate for September in this city was far below the average. There were but seventeen interments at Lindenwood cemetery during the month, while the customary average is from forty to fifty for the month.

BOUGHT A CIGAR STORE.

Robert Gallmeyer has purchased the cigar store of Henry Niemann, at Calhoun and Jefferson streets, and assumed possession Tuesday evening. Negotiations have been under way for some time. Mr. Niemann will go to New York, where a very lucrative position has been offered him.

THE HORSE TAMER.

A crowd of about 500 people witnessed the exhibition of horse taming by Professor Gleason at the Princess rink, Tuesday evening. The first horse in the ring was a big gray, with a reputation for nervousness. The animal put up a hard fight and owing to the fact that the taming of the horse took up so much time, it was decided to give him another lesson this evening. The second horse was speedily disposed of, but the third, a handsome bay mare, gave the professor considerable trouble before being subdued and he caressed will be disposed of in a second lesson this evening. The last horse in the ring was soon reduced to a state of subjection. At this evening's performance "Jack the Ripper," a country horse with a wide reputation for vice, will be tamed. This animal will allow no one to hitch him to a buggy and the performance tonight will no doubt be doubly interesting. Announcement was made last night that tonight and thereafter all ladies would be admitted free when accompanied by gentlemen.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Ed Gaffney has pitched fine ball for the South Bend team this season, having won twenty-nine of the thirty-four games in which he officiated.

While at South Bend Sunday Norman Brashear was approached by a man whom he recognized as his father. They had not seen each other in seventeen years.

"Chick" Stahl's bat lined out two hits again yesterday, one of them a two-bagger. The Fort Wayne boy also stole two bases and accepted his only chance in the field.

Chicago is now in the game position in the league race that the team occupied when A. C. Anson managed the team for the last time. And the "old man" doesn't appear to be a bit sorry.

Tim Flood accepted six of the seven fielding chances offered him yesterday and was a participant in two fast double plays. He failed to connect with the ball while at bat. Tim was also credited with one sacrifice hit.

"Doggie" Miller and Bergen are arranging to leave Fort Wayne for their respective homes this week. Miller goes to Eau Claire, Wis., and Bergen goes to Massachusetts. Guess will remain in Fort Wayne two or three weeks and Brashear, Hollingsworth and Babb will stay here all winter.

The attorneys got their revenge yesterday. They played the court house nine for the second time and were beaten by a score of 22 to 16. A. E. Thomas says that but for the absence of Lee Ninde the lawyers would certainly have won. Will Edsall pitched for the lawyers and Geo. Lindemuth handled the sphere for the court house boys. Ira Belden umpired and Phil Colerick and Sheriff Melching ran bases when any of the players were tired.

SPORTING NOTES.

Boralma, by Boreal, won the great three-year-old Futurity at Lexington Tuesday. The wonderful three-year-old won the third, fifth and sixth heats and in the third took a record of 2:13. Idolita won the first and second heats, taking a record of 2:12 and Etaxty won the fourth heat in 2:11½, the fastest time ever made in the race. Boralma was purchased before the race by Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, for $17,000, but he cleared more than twice enough in bets to pay for the great three-year-old. Gus Macey received $4,000 for driving Boralma to victory.

Hal B. was beaten again yesterday, this time by Eyelet. He won the first two heats in 2:06½ and 2:06 and then lost the next three, the fastest of which was the third in 2:06½. This is Hal B.'s second defeat this season.

Jack Root, the Chicago middleweight, came within an "ace" of knocking out Frank Craig, the "Harlem Coffee Cooler," Tuesday evening. Root was given the decision at the end of the sixth round.

The Notre Dame foot ball eleven is this afternoon playing a game with the Chicago university eleven in Chicago. John Eggemore is again at center for the Notre Dames.

DAWKINS.

Corn cutting is nearly all done and Try, The Sentinel want columns.

some have commenced to crib their corn.

H. C. Wall, of Bryant, Ind., was out looking for a location. Mr. Wall likes the looks of this section of the country and he may move out here in the near future.

J. C. Ireland was in the city Saturday.

George Dagar and Fred Winkler have quit working on the section at Dawkins and will go to Iowa. The school is doing finely, but the attendance is small at present. The children all like their teacher.

Lewis Kalsey, of Wall, Jay county, is visiting old acquaintances this week.

Tom Bengman has moved on Albert Yoquette's place.

Emanuel Kiser has moved on A. W. Gregg's place.

John Garmanier is down sick with typhoid fever.

Isaac Bollinger, of this place, is building a new brick dwelling house.

Miss Mary Heckman rides a new wheel now.

Snow flew last Friday for the first time this season.

Shellie Dawkins is entertaining relatives from Kansas for a few days.

The huckster wagon of Frank Dawkins will not be running any more this season.

BAIL WAS FIXED AT $2,000.

TOM WALSH WAS NOT PLACED

ON TRIAL TODAY.

Mrs. Shipman Is In a Dangerous Condition and Could Not Appear in Court.

Thomas F. Walsh, alias C. Francis Bernard, the picture agent who drew a revolver on Mrs. Eliza A. Shipman Tuesday morning, was in police court this morning with his attorney, R. B. Hanna, but he was not placed on trial. Frank J. Shipman, husband of Mrs. Shipman, was present and filed an affidavit charging Walsh with drawing a dangerous weapon. He said that Mrs. Shipman was unable to appear in court, in fact, she had only been conscious an hour or two since Walsh had so badly frightened her and the attending physician, Dr. Fair, was of the opinion that it would be several days before she would be able to leave her bed. The mayor was inclined to accept no bail, especially after Deputy Prosecutor Thomas explained that if Mrs. Shipman should die the prisoner could be held for manslaughter. It was finally decided to fix bond at $2,000, which Walsh was unable to give and went to jail. The preliminary trial was fixed for next Monday, with the understanding that if Mrs. Shipman's condition improved enough the prisoner could have a hearing any day previous.

A number of Walsh's victims were in police court hunting for their pictures. Superintendent Gorsline called at the office in the Bass block and told the clerks to settle all difficulties with customers without having them call at the station, or the place would be closed. Quite a number of persons called at the office and recovered their pictures.

POLICE NOTES.

Joseph Barick, a drunk arrested by Pennsylvania Detective Harrod, was fined $1 and costs. He was a railroad hunter for work and accumulated too much "booze." Advances received from Barick's home were to the effect that he was a first-class citizen when not under the influence of liquor.

Leslie Jackett, arrested by Detective Redman for climbing on moving trains, was discharged and ordered to leave the city.

Lee Rennsmith, a lad arrested for climbing on trains by Detective Dinger, was sent to jail pending an investigation of his story. He claims New Bloomfield, Pa., as his home and says he was en route there from Chicago. His father is a printer.

A shopping bag belonging to Miss Lizzie Drake was found and left at the police station.

Captain Daseiler and Officers Maden, Blum and White, all of whom had been ill during the last month, were on duty Tuesday.

PERRY TOWNSHIP NEWS.

Mrs. John B. Massom has been quite ill for some time with heart trouble.

The dance which was given by Mr. and Mrs. James Shorden was well attended and all had a good time. Music was furnished by James Delegrange and Sines Barnett. All retired for their homes at 12:30 a. m.

Samuel Simon has gone to Michigan on his wedding trip and will return Tuesday.

Frank Sordet has been making cider and apple butter all week. He said he was going to live fat this winter.

Misses Clara Bobay and Clara Pope have been the guests of Frank Soos in South Africa. They will return home Saturday.

FIRM IS RANKE & NUSSBAUM.

NEW PARTNER IN A WELL-KNOWN DRUG STORE.

Charles F. Freese Disposes of His Drug Interests to Joseph G. Nussbaum.

The well-known drug firm of Freese & Ranke went out of existence last evening when the senior partner, Charles F. Freese, sold his interests in the Calhoun street drug store to Joseph G. Nussbaum. The change occurred this morning, though the new partner will not be in the store for a few days.

The change will be a surprise to business circles, as it was not known that Mr. Freese contemplated retiring. The new partner, Mr. Nussbaum, is a young man of fine business qualifications and has had considerable experience in the drug business, besides being a graduate of the Purdue School of Pharmacy. He is a son of Peter Nussbaum, and is well known and very popular in this city. Recently he has been employed as a prescription clerk at the Goeke drug store on Broadway.

The new firm of Ranke & Nussbaum begins business under most favorable circumstances, and will doubtless meet with a large measure of success. Both partners are competent, energetic and popular, and the store has long been a popular pharmacy.

LAFAYETTE TOWNSHIP.

Cutting corn and sowing wheat are almost things of the past.

Digging potatoes is now in order. Quite a number from this locality attended the street fair at Bluffton last week.

The venerable George Bush, who has been ill for some time, is still in a very critical condition.

William Kress, who visited in Chicago the past week, returned home Saturday.

A number of families in this vicinity are entertaining visitors from Ohio, who came on the recent excursion.

Mrs. Aurelia Craig has rented her farm and will move to Huntington to reside permanently.

Misses Viola and Clara Campbell, of Angola, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Wormer last week.

Mrs. Charles Neath is critically ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Lizzie Whorledge, of Noble county, is visiting relatives in this locality.

The date for the Lafayette township Sunday school convention has been set for November 4th and 5th at Beech Grove Christian church. A complete program will be given next week.

D. C. Denius, who travels in the interest of his patent farm gate, came home Sunday to spend a few days with his family.

HOAGLAND.

Now is nutting time, and as they are quite plenty, teachers, you will have to make school very interesting to keep the boys from playing truant.

Misses Laura Peltier and Etta Wadge have been visiting Ida McIntosh for the past few days.

Landy Bolinger, of Frankford, Mich., has been spending a ten days vacation with friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Mary Todd has sold her property here to Mrs. Evans. She will hereafter be a resident of Maples.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Corvill gave a party last Friday evening in honor of Miss Lida Stout, of Fort Wayne. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing parlor games. Refreshments were served.

Rev. Jones and wife have returned from their summer's vacation. They were accompanied by her brother who will spend the winter with them and attend the Hoagland high school.

There will be a box social at the school house next Saturday evening. All are invited.

Two of our most brilliant young men, Bert Somers and Harry Kinners, left last Saturday for Indianapolis to attend the Indiana law school.

Ida McIntosh entertained her Sunday school class last Saturday afternoon at her home. "What a good time and lots of fun we had," is the way the children expressed it.

Dr. DeVilbiss, of Toledo, Ohio, was in town last week looking after the mill. He advised the overseer, John McIntosh, to fix it up and have the place cleaned off. It would then be pleasant to have entertainments in and a credit to our town, sure.

Last Sabbath morning as Lloyd McIntosh, accompanied by Laura Peltier and Etta Wadge, was going home from Sunday school at Antioch the horse became frightened and began to run. In turning the corner at Mr. Todd's the buggy upset and threw the occupants out. Fortunately no one was seriously injured, but all sustained severe bruises, Miss Wadge suffering the most.

Our boys suffered defeat last Saturday at Berns, 7 to 13. Two of our players failed to appear.

NINE MILE.

"Jack Frost" has begun to call around quite frequently these evenings while we sleep.

William Daffon and James Rice threshed their oats last week. The yield was quite good.

George Rice and F. Bossler are entertaining guests from Trumbull county, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Dunfee called upon friends in Whitley county over Saturday and Sunday of last week.

The Misses Mitchell attended the old settlers' reunion at Ossian last Thursday and called upon acquaintances.

"Those wedding bells are ringing on a moonlight, winter's night"—if you do not believe it, just be quiet.

J. Wesley Hook, one of our popular and highly esteemed young men, made a flying trip to Columbia City Sunday.

Robert Kimmel and family were the guests of friends at Markle over Wednesday, and attended the fair at Bluffton Thursday. Robert reported a good time.

Our popular postmaster and much esteemed merchant, Peter Winters, and family, attended the fair at Bluffton Thursday.

Quite a number of our neighbors attended the I. O. O. F. picnic held at Zanesville on the 23d. A feature of the program was the fine speaking of Hon. James M. Robinson and Attorney E. V. Emrick, of Fort Wayne; Rev. Cully, of Zanesville, and Rev. Norris, of Roanoke. Music was furnished by the Zanesville band. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all who attended.

LAKE TOWNSHIP.

These are typical days of "When the frost is on the pumpkins and the fiddler's in the shock." Let us appreciate them while they last.

Mr. Fred Eme, who has been working at Chicago, has returned home.

Mrs. Jacob Felger, who has been quite ill for about a week, is very much improved and we hope will soon be well.

Suddo Smith, mail clerk on the Fort Wayne road, is out on his trip. He will apply for a leave of absence so as to make a visit to the state of Kansas, where he expects to bag some big game. Sud is quite a nimrod and enjoys the sport very much. We wish him good luck and a good time.

Will and John Colter, who have been attending DePauw for the last two years, are taking a course at the International Business college, Fort Wayne. We wish them success at their new studies.

Mr. Jacob Felger, who has been at home with his parents this summer, has returned to Columbus, Ohio, where he resumes his studies in the theological department of Capital university.

The new Catholic church at Arcola is nearing completion and will soon be dedicated. It will be one of the finest church edifices in any country district.

Mr. John Blessing, a prominent young farmer of Lake township, and Hulda Kinley, of the same place, were married last week. We extend to them our heartiest congratulations and hope that life's pathway will be strewn with many blessings.

John McCormack, who has been farming on one of Sylvester McMack-hon's farms, will have a sale next Saturday, one mile west of Lake Center. He will soon retire from the farm on account of ill health.

Wm. Hagan has been quite ill on account of an attack by an abscess, which formed on his nose. An operation has been performed and it is thought he will soon recover.

John Sterling, who has made his home at Hoagland for the last three years, has returned to the old homestead and will have charge of his father's farm.

Mrs. Jacob Shaffer, who has been at Wheeler, Ind., to attend the wedding of her daughter, Etta, at that place, has returned.

This year promises to be a good one for game, especially squirrels and quail. The country seems literally filled with them. The quail are very tame. They simply walk out of one's way, that is all, and the nimrods will no doubt have fine sport when the law opens. But some of our city friends had better not happen to kill any of the farmers' turkeys by mistake or otherwise, as some of them have done in the past. The farmers are thoroughly aroused and the offender will surely be prosecuted for his nefarious work if apprehended.

The Lake township Union Sunday schools held their fourth annual convention at Lake Center Sunday, Oct. 1. Many prominent speakers were present to address the meeting, which was a very large one, not all being able to get into the room provided.

The choir, under the able direction of Prof. Hyatt, gave very excellent music, which was much appreciated by the audience. All present were impressed that it was the best ever held in this township, and that they derived a great deal of instruction and inspiration from the day's proceedings.

The Lake township farmers will hold their fourth annual institute at Lake Center Saturday, Oct. 7. A very good program has been prepared. It is to be given by the most progressive farmers of the township and will no doubt be of very great value to all present. All who are interested are cordially invited to be present and spend a day with them.

EDGERTON.

Mrs. Fletcher is on the sick list. Sunday, Sept. 24th, being the fifty-sixth birthday of Mrs. John McConnell, about thirty of her friends made the day memorable by gathering at Mr. and Mrs. Coffey, of Buffalo, N. Y., were the guests last week of Section Foreman John Downs, who is a brother to Mrs. Coffey.

A. D. Craig will address the Sunday school at this place on next Sunday at 10 o'clock a. m.

Tom Bell, the Nickel Plate conductor, spent Sunday in Edgerton with G. W. Gilbert.

The country home, where all partook of a bountiful repast, after which an afternoon was spent in the good old-fashioned way and all enjoyed themselves and wished both Mr. and Mrs. McConnell many more happy birthdays.

Garmoth & Laric are closing out their restaurant and will quit business.

Mrs. Bunner, mother of the Rev. E. A. Bunner, is calling in this vicinity while on her way to visit friends at Garrett City, Ind.

H. H. Roose is building some very large cribs in connection with his elevator. He says he can accommodate fifteen farmers to unload at the same time this fall.

We are informed that Landlord Leatherman has decided to put a notion store instead of a saloon in his hotel. We heartily congratulate you, Bob, for this wise choice.

There will be a supper at John McConnell's on the evening of October 17th in the interests of the new church. All are cordially invited.

Joe Harper has moved to Roanoke Ind., where he will accept the job of culling staves.

Grandpa Auspach, of Wyandotte, Mich., is visiting with his son George and other friends of this place.

Published to Help Women.

I have just received the Ladies' Birthday Almanac and thought I would fill out the enclosed examination blank and see if you could do anything for me, but I have about given up all hope. I have tried so many things, and have been troubled by eye of the eye physicians in Omaha, Neb., but all in vain. My husband and I are very fond of children, and if I could become a mother I would be perfectly happy.

Perhaps you will remember a Mrs. Buffington who wrote to your Advisory Department a little more than a year ago from Otogo, Kansas, asking for advice, which you so kindly gave, and for which I will never be able to thank you enough. I had suffered terribly for many years at monthly periods, and sometimes would go for almost a year with no sign of menses. We had been married eleven years but no children had been born to us. After getting your advice, I studied the book on Home Treatment, that you sent me, and followed your directions closely. With only three bottles of McElree's Wine of Cardui, I was entirely cured and soon after became pregnant and am expecting to be confined next month. My health is good and I even now do all my work. I can hardly realize the wonderful change that has resulted from the use of your medicine in my case, after I had given up all hope of recovery. Will help any who are afflicted as I was you are at liberty to publish it.

McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui

These earnest letters are presented to the suffering women for whom they were written, with the hope that Mrs. Buffington's appeal will not be made in vain. Her remarkable experience, honestly related, fully substantiates the statement that you have made. If you have irregular menstruation, if you have no possible excuse for long for a baby to bless your home, if you are too sick or weak or tired to care for the children that have been born to you, if you have any of those troubling troubles known as "female troubles," and really want relief, this letter shows the road to perfect health, to rest, to peace, to happiness. Buy a bottle of Wine of Cardui at your drug store to-day, and take the medicine as directed. It won't be a week until you will feel better. Try it.

The Baldwin compound engines recently purchased by the Wabash continue to do good work and are fast dispelling the prejudice that has existed against that class of engines. Monday one of these big locomotives left Montpelier with the Continental limited twenty-eight minutes late and went into Detroit on time. There were ten cars in the train and all were loaded with passengers and baggage to their full capacity. The distance traveled was ninety-six miles and the train in making the run consumed 109 minutes, including all stops. The Continental limited, over that portion of the road, is scheduled at forty-two miles an hour.

CLAIM AGENTS MEET.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—The Freight Claims association of the United States began its semi-annual meeting at the Shoreham today. President Graham called the meeting to order. The meeting will last two days, and will cover the subject of claims and some readjustment of the association's rules.

THE TRAIN DISPATCHER.

Columns of worthy comments have been passed as to the fortitude and good judgment of a locomotive engineer. He deserves it all. His is not only a perilous position to fill, but is also one which requires acute judgment. For the duties he is called upon to perform he is neither to be envied nor despised. However, there is another important factor in safe and successful railroading who is too frequently overlooked when important and technical positions are considered, and that is the train dispatcher, says the Railway Journal. The safety of not only the passengers, but also the trainmen as well, depends largely upon the adeptness and judgment which he exercises in the fulfillment of his duty. His office is not a sinecure, either. It is tiresome, tedious and risky. At his desk in a cheerless office he sits, and with his key handles every train—passenger and freight—on his division. Every train must have a place to meet the one coming in the opposite direction, and the successful meeting of those two trains has to be provided for by the man at the dispatcher's desk. "Extras" sometimes dash out on the track almost unheralded; the dispatcher must see that the way is clear for it. Regular trains oftentimes become unavoidably delayed, and consequently are not at their regular switch or passing point in time to meet the other "regular." Something must be done to adjust the difficulty and avert disaster. This trying task falls to the train dispatcher. His knowledge, quick wits and judgment are all brought into play at once. He must act instantly or there may be an appalling catastrophe. He knows the location of every moving wheel on the track of his division; and whether they are on regular schedule time or not it is his trying duty to keep in touch with every train in its proper place at a certain time. If he does not do all this, and even sometimes more perplexing duties the trains would soon be all piled up in wrecks along the road, and the railway company would be forced to suspend business and go into liquidation. These are a few of the trying positions of the ever-important train dispatcher. Withal his position is not only quite responsible, but is also exceedingly trying. His lot is far from being an easy one, and very few people today who enjoy the comforts, conveniences of railway travel ever reckon how much they are indebted to the faithful and judicious hand that manipulates the dispatcher's key for their pleasure and safety.

FURNITURE CARS SCARCE.

There are not enough furniture cars in the country to transport the heavy traffic that has unexpectedly sprung up in that line of goods. Western furniture men have recently invaded New England territory and cannot get their wares into those states fast enough to supply the demand. The Pennsylvania company is better supplied with furniture cars than any other line in the central states, having built a number at its shops during the past year.

REPAIRING ROUND HOUSE.

The material for extensive repairs has arrived at the Nickel Plate round house and the work will commence tomorrow. New floor, smoke jacks and ventilators will take the place of the old ones, the doors and windows will be tightened and otherwise put in shape for winter and several other improvements will be made.

FAST RUN TO ST. LOUIS.

A special train was made up at Peru yesterday to carry the Whitehall Guards into St. Louis in time to catch a train bound for Meriden, Miss. The regular Wabash train, No. 7, on which the Guards came down from Toledo, was over an hour late and could not make up the lost time on the run to St. Louis, hence the special. The private car carrying the Fort Wayne touring party was also a part of the special train from Peru to St. Louis. The run was made in seven hours, the average speed being 80½ miles an hour, not including stops. The train was hauled by one of the new Baldwin-Barnes engines.

TRIES A NEW ENGINE.

One of the big new Grand Rapids and Indiana engines took Pennsylvania train No. 9 from this city to Chicago last night. The train was thirty-five minutes late and an effort was made to go into Chicago on time, but the weather and other conditions did not favor fast running and the train only made up four minutes of its lost time. On the engine were Engineer Peter Bailey, Fireman E. Gillen and Motive Power Inspector Wall, of the Pennsylvania, and Traveling Fireman Shannon, of the Grand Rapids. This big engine is capable of much better work, as proven by several good runs on the Grand Rapids road.

WHITSEL'S GOOD LUCK.

N. B. Whitsel, who was recently retired from the office of traveling engineer of the Wabash and given a passenger run on the line, has been called to the Grand Trunk road by Superintendent of Motive Power Morse and placed in office similar to the one he occupied on the Wabash. Mr. Whitsel will have his headquarters at Belleville, Ont., where he will soon move his family. While rejoicing over Mr. Whitsel's good fortune in securing so desirable a position, his friends in this city will regret the necessity that takes him and his excellent family from Fort Wayne.

SNUBBED THE BROTHERHOOD.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 4.—General Manager Schaaf has refused to confer with a committee of the railway operators of the Big Four system, saying he will only confer with them individually. The committee declines to take his suggestion and will consider what it is best to do. They are inclined to refer their request for a wage adjustment to the Federated Board of Railway Employees' association. Over five hundred of the 575 operators in the employ of the Big Four are members of the Order of Railway Telegraphers.

TWO EMPLOYEES HURT.

Henry Geerken, the well known boilermaker, will be off duty a few days, nursing a lame hand. Yesterday, while at work in the Pittsburg shops, a sharp point of a smoke-box saddle ran into his wrist, puncturing an artery and producing a most painful wound, from which the blood flowed in a stream until checked. The other unfortunate was brakeman V. Weber, who was pinched between cars at Inwood last night. His injuries are not regarded very serious, but will disable him for several days. Mr. Weber was a member of Conductor Compton's crew.

DEWEY TRAFFIC IMMENSE.

A canvas has been made of the operating officials of the six leading railroad systems entering New York, to get at an approximate estimate of the "near-by" crowds at the Dewey celebration. According to the figures just given out by the officials of these roads—viz., the Pennsylvania, New York Central and allied roads, Jersey Central, Lackawanna, Erie and West Shore—not fewer than 225,000 persons living within a radius of seventy-five miles of New York City gathered within the confines of Manhattan on Saturday, to honor the nation's hero. This immense volume of passenger traffic was distributed as follows:

Pennsylvania	80,000
New York Central and allied lines	45,000
Central Railroad of New Jersey	35,000
Lackawanna	35,000
Erie	15,000
West Shore	15,000
Total	175,000

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Pittsburg Engineer W. C. Bender is off duty on account of sickness.

Conductor U. R. Davis, who had been sick, has returned to his duties on the Nickel Plate.

T. Kress, tinner at the Pittsburg shops, and his two sons have gone to Chicago to attend the fall festival.

A. L. Gove, who recently moved here from Grand Rapids, has secured employment at the Pittsburg blacksmith shop.

The Bass works today shipped two 150-horse power boilers to the International Phosphate company, of Carteret, N. J.

Henry Rodenbeck, of the Bass' smith shop, is suffering from kidney troubles and will be unable to work for a few days.

Charles Watts, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania's Northwestern system, has returned from Europe and resumed work.

It is stated that the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton September earnings were the largest of any month in the road's history.

Nickel Plate Engineer P. W. Donahue is taking a lay-off to attend the street carnival and Fireman Fred Roembke is sick and off duty.

John Richard and J. Boone, of the Pittsburg shops, are sick and George Axt, of the same shop, is kept from his work by the sickness of his wife.

Tinner J. C. Bernhardt, of the Pittsburg shops, is taking a brief lay-off to look after some private business and to attend the barbecue.

R. H. Mauk has recovered from an attack of malarial fever which confined him three weeks. He has returned to his work in the Pittsburg copper shop.

It is stated that the present form of mileage tickets used by the lines in the Western Passenger association is not likely to undergo any immediate change.

It was John Rupp and not John Roet that was hurt at the Pittsburg blacksmith shop yesterday. The reporter was misinformed concerning the name of the unfortunate man.

Stockholders of the Old Colony, who for thirty years past have been in the habit of journeying without charge from their homes along the lines to Boston, will hereafter have to pay their fare or walk, as a resolution was passed at the last annual meeting of the directors abolishing the custom.

Pittsburg Fireman E. Gillen has his father as his guest. The senior Gillen resides in Marion, Ind.

Machinist H. W. Sloat, of the Pittsburg, is visiting friends in the vicinity of Pleasant Lake, Ind.

M. E. Hardendorf, of the Pittsburg shops, has as his guest his mother, Mrs. M. E. Hardendorf, who resides in Rome City.

Louis Stetter, of the Pittsburg, is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. William Kirchner, of Preble, Ind., the parents of Mrs. Stetter.

S. S. Rothrock, of the electric light works, has returned from New Albany, Ind., where he has been for the past few weeks installing an electric lighting plant for the city.

Mr. Trimble, first assistant to Chief Engineer Ridd, of the Pennsylvania company, is in the city today, looking after some business affairs that come within his province.

The directors of the Monon will this week decide whether to build the new road from Indianapolis to Oakland, on the main line, and thence to the coal fields of southwestern Indiana.

Trains are now running over forty miles of the White Pass and Yukon railroad, in Alaska, and the company engaged in the construction of the line says it will be completed next June.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Weyer and their son have returned from Delphos, O., where they visited a week. Mr. Weyer, who is a tinner, resumed work in the Pittsburg shops this morning.

Henry Seyner, a fireman on one of the Pittsburg local freight engines, slipped last evening on the apron in the cab and severely sprained his hips. The accident will lay him up a few days.

The sample side dump ore car, built at the east car shops, is finished and ready for inspection. It is quite likely that there will be more of this class of cars built this fall and the coming winter.

Brakeman William Ruback, of the Nickel Plate, is attending the Chicago festival and has taken a lay-off for that purpose. Brakeman C. Downey is laying off to attend the Fort Wayne carnival.

E. J. Klingman, who has been employed in the Pittsburg boiler shop for several weeks, has decided to go west and seek employment and with that object in view he resigned his position in the Pittsburg shops this morning.

Work on the addition to the Bass blacksmith shop is greatly delayed by the failure of the lumber dealers to furnish the material on time. The lumbermen say it is impossible to get lumber of a special kind at present, so busy are the mill men.

The Chesapeake and Ohio company has 400 men engaged upon the work of building its big $1,000,000 grain elevator at Newport News, Va. The work will be pushed along as rapidly as possible in order to be ready for business after the holidays, if not before.

Pittsburg Engineer J. E. Long has gone into Pleasant township to see his aged father, who is very sick. The old gentleman is one of the leading citizens in the southern part of the county and has served in various official capacities during his residence here.

One week from today the American Railway association will hold its fall meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York. Besides presentation of all the committees' reports there will be other important business, included being the election of some committees.

A striking showing is made by the Santa Fe in its statement for August, just published which shows the gross earnings increased nearly $900,000 over last year, and the net earnings $700,000. The percentage of operating expenses to gross earnings was 66.6 against 63.8 in August, 1898.

The Fort Wayne Electric company today loaded for shipment the machinery for two important plants, the dynamo and the equipment making two car loads. One car load will go to Jonesboro, Ill., and the other will go to Brazil, Ind. The dynamo in the latter car is one of the largest of its character, being of 4,000 light capacity.

C. E. Barnes, of the Pittsburg blacksmith shop, is entertaining during carnival week his brother's wife, Mrs. J. M. Barnes, and her daughter. The husband of the visiting lady is foreman of the Wabash shops at Delray, Mich., which duty he assumed a few days ago, as stated in The Sentinel. He formerly had charge of the Peru shops. Mr. Barnes was also here yesterday, leaving last night for Delray.

The first regular lesson of the School of Electricity was given in the Elektron building Tuesday evening and a large number of pupils were present. This school affords an excellent opportunity to those who are learning the electrical business.

BOERS GRAB GOLD.

Seize an Immense Treasure En Route
From Mines to Cape Town, Said to be about $2,500,000

THE SITUATION IS VERY STRAINED.

London, Oct. 4.—The most sensational news from South Africa this morning is a reiteration of yesterday's report of the acquisition by the Transvaal authorities of $2,500,000 in gold, which was on the way to Cape Town from Johannesburg. The confirmation of the story comes from two sources. The Cape Argus asserts that the Boers made the seizure at Vereninging, the amount being the week's shipment of gold on the way from the Rand to Cape Town, and forwarded the treasure to Pretoria.

The report is also confirmed by a cablegram received today by a mining company in London from their representative, which is to the effect that the train upon which the gold was traveling from Johannesburg to Cape Town was held up and looted by Boers, who secured $2,500,000 in gold, the amount being considerably less than the original estimate.

NOTHING TANGIBLE.

There is nothing very tangible in today's war news, but the situation remains as strained as ever, unless hope may be derived from the apparent fact that the forces on the frontier are regarded by high authority as wholly defensive for the present and from the statement that J. H. Hofmeyer, the Afrikaner leader in Cape Colony, is still prepared to endeavor to secure the adhesion of the Transvaal government to the "irreducible minimum" proposed at the Bloemfontein conference to President Kruger by Sir Alfred Milner, the British high commissioner, if the imperial government will stand by the high commissioner's original proposal.

CAVARS ARE PLENTIFUL.

The stock exchange was influenced during the opening hours today by vague rumors that Queen Victoria had cabled President Kruger and President Steyn holding out the olive branch and by a report that the Boers had been defeated in a small engagement.

Prices rose, but there was a speedy relapse when both stories were discredited.

Sir Wm. Vernon-Harcourt, the distinguished liberal statesman, member of parliament for West Monmouthshire, has another slashing attack in today's papers upon the policy of the secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain.

He reiterates his original statement that Mr. Chamberlain's assertion that the Transvaal refused to redress the grievances of the Outlanders is the reverse of the case, and he insists that Great Britain is responsible for "slamming the door in the face of President Kruger just when arrangements were approaching a settlement."

SITUATION GRAVE.

Advice from Cape Town announces that General Sir Geo. Stewart White, V. C., who will command the British forces in Natal, will proceed to Durban today. On his arrival at Cape Town he found the situation on the Natal border so grave that he wired for immediate transportation for himself and staff to Durban, and the British second class cruiser Forte was placed at his disposal.

A London news agency publishes the following dispatch from Volksrust, Transvaal, dated Oct. 3:

"An unconfirmed report is in circulation here that the time allowed the British troops to withdraw from the Transvaal border will expire at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and that the failure to comply with the demand will be considered tantamount to a declaration of war."

The British foreign office this afternoon assured the Associated Press that absolutely nothing was known there of any Transvaal demand for the withdrawal of the British troops from the frontier.

LIBERALS FOR WAR.

A meeting of liberal members of the house of commons, including several former members of liberal cabinets, was held this morning at the private residence of the leader of the liberal opposition in the house, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman.

The subject under consideration was the government's South African policy, and the meeting resolved to support the government on the re-assembly of parliament, even at the expense of placing the present official leaders of the liberal party in conflict with their former colleagues, Sir William Vernon-Harcourt and Mr. John Morely.

ULTIMATUM ALLEGED.

Paris, Oct. 4.—A number of papers say that the Boers have sent an ultimatum to England demanding the withdrawal of the troops from the frontier within forty-eight hours. The papers congratulate President Kruger for coming to this decision.

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS.

London, Oct. 4.—A London news agency publishes a dispatch from Paris saying it is rumored there that a semi-official exchange of views is proceeding between Russia, France and Germany with reference to the Transvaal crisis.

KRUGER'S FAITH IN GOD.

Pretoria, Oct. 4.—A more extended account of the speech of President Kruger at the adjournment of the Rand yesterday is now obtainable. According to a trustworthy report he said:

"Everything points to war because a spirit of falsehood has overtaken other countries and because the people of the Transvaal wish to govern themselves. Although thousands may come to attack us, we have nothing to fear; the Lord is the final arbiter and He will decide.

"Bullets came by the thousands at the time of the Jameson raid, but the burghers were untouched. Over a hundred were killed on the other side, showing that the Lord directed our bullets. The Lord rules the world."

Mr. J. M. A. Wolmarans, one of the two non-official members of the executive council, said he hoped that when the Rand's reassembled they would be without a convention and would be a free people.

God, he declared, had often used England to bring the burghers back to the faith of their forefathers. In the course of his speech he exclaimed:

"England has refused everything, even arbitration."

THE PRESIDENT COMING.

WILL ARRIVE HERE THURSDAY EVENING.

Will Remain Here Five Minutes—

Travels by Special Train.

Local Wabash officials have been notified of the coming of the presidential party over that line. Mr. McKinley's train is due here at 7:25 o'clock Thursday evening and will remain here five minutes. The president is out upon a pleasure jaunt. His train will be delivered to the Wabash by the Baltimore & Ohio at Defiance and will be turned over to the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy at Quincy. En route Mr. McKinley will stop a few minutes in all the larger places and in many of them make short speeches from the car platform. His train will consist of five Pullman palace cars.

LAMP EXPLODED.

Tuesday evening a small lamp exploded at the home of Mrs. H. McLeitch, 70 West Wayne street, setting fire to a lace curtain. The department was called, but before it reached the scene the flames had been extinguished. A gentleman who assisted in pulling down the curtain had his hands severely burned. Damage to the residence was confined to the loss of the curtain.

WILL GO IT ALONE.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 4.—The local district assembly of the International Longshoremen's association has voted to withdraw from the United Trades and Labor council. The trouble seems to have been caused by the attitude of the United Trades and Labor council in regard to the marine and stationary engineers, some of whom are organized as local No. 17 and who are affiliated with the International Longshoremen's association. It is said that at its last meeting the United Trades and Labor council refused to honor the credentials of the delegates chosen to represent local No. 17 in the trades council and that admission to the meeting was refused them. The dock workers number about 7,000 men.

TO TAKE STRIKERS' PLACES.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 4.—Sixty blacksmiths and machinists arrived here today over the Pennsylvania railroad from New York, having been engaged to work at the Cramp ship building yards. They were met at Broad street station by a committee of strikers, who informed them of the situation at the ship yards. Thirty of the men deserted immediately. The remainder subsequently yielded to the appeals of the workmen when about to board a tug for the ship yard.

THE BRITONS ARE SATISFIED.

SETTLEMENT OF BOUNDARY IS PLEASING.

Regard It As a Vindication, But of More Value As Strengthening Friendship.

London, Oct. 4.—The award of the Anglo-Venezuelan boundary arbitration commission is regarded by the afternoon papers as eminently satisfactory from the English point of view, but it is hardly proof of the practicability of universal arbitration. The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Without doubt Great Britain has done uncommonly well, as is proved by the comments of former President Harrison. If it were not already sufficiently obvious, it is now made clear that arbitration has shown the disposition of the government to be that of members of the supreme and a sinful and unnatural quarrel. This must have its impression in America and thus must have sown good seed, which has already grown into a flourishing plant."

The St. James Gazette says: "The outcome is not the result of arbitration, but of a friendly compromise, as stated by former President Harrison. We have not got all we wanted, nor all to which we are entitled, but arbitration has resulted in giving British Guiana an indisputable title to the northwestern district, where her future lies. Every one will gladly join in the universal congratulations to the tribunal upon the happy result of difficult and delicate labors."

The Westminster Gazette says: "The result is decidedly satisfactory. The contentions of both parties have been set aside, but the substantial point is that Great Britain gets more than on various occasions she had expressed herself willing to concede to Venezuela. The practical feature of the case is that we have substantially succeeded against Venezuela, while vastly improving our relations with the United States. The award and the rapidity with which it was rendered cannot fail to give a strong impetus to international arbitration."

The Globe, adopting its usual of-fensive tone, says: "For once arbitration has not operated to our advantage. There are others besides the Venezuelans who should now recognize that Great Britain will not suffer what she considers her rights to be subjected to the terrorism of warlike menace, whether in one part of the world or in another, whether by a great power or a small state."

CANNIFF COMING TONIGHT.

ADMIRAL WATSON REPORTS NAVAL OPERATIONS.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—General Otis has cabled the war department the following account of the recent sharp engagements with the insurgents:

"Manila, Oct. 4.—Captain Poore, Sixth infantry, attacked entrenched robber band in western Negros last inst.; Lieut. Grubb, Sixth infantry, killed; Dr. Shillock and three enlisted men slightly wounded; twenty of enemy killed, including two leading robbers; twelve rifles, large supply of ammunition and stores captured; Poore's action highly commended.

"Insurgents west of Bacoor and Imus, Luzon, attacked line of communication; Captain Eldridge, Fourth infantry, killed; Lieutenant Burgess, Fifth artillery, wounded; number of enlisted men killed and wounded, ten or twelve; full report not yet received. Enemy driven west and south with a reported heavy loss.

"Yesterday enemy attacked Calamba; driven off some distance into country; our casualties, two enlisted men killed, seven wounded. Sixty insurgents killed; number wounded unknown.

"Fourth cavalry reconnaissance yesterday from San Fernando in direction of Santa Anna and Arayat; one man killed; no other casualties. Insurgents driven with considerable loss.

"Advanced picket post, three men, out from San Antonio and Santa Rita, west of San Fernando, killed yesterday by bolo men; result of carelessness or overconfidence in natives. Otis.

A later message from General Otis states that Captain Eldridge died of his wounds on the evening of October 2.

NAVAL OPERATIONS.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—The navy department has received the following from Admiral Watson:

"Manila, Oct. 4.—Cornwall, with Callan, Mindoro, Gardoque, Basco and armed lighter, also landing force of marines from Baltimore, Petrel and Helena, entered Orani river Monday morning, raised Urdaneta, gunboats protecting working party. Two hundred men under Cornwall landed, secured neighborhood and town. Insurgents fled, firing scattering shots. Town abandoned, partially burned by shells. No casualties. Brought Urdaneta to Cavite today. Propeller and shaft in place; smokestack recovered. Will refit. Watson."

FEEL HOPEFUL OF WINNING.

BRITONS LIKE SHAMROCK'S PERFORMANCE.

Newspapers Voice the New Hope

That the Challenger Will Bring Back the Cup.

London, Oct. 4.—The momentary disappointment that the first day's contest for the America's cup should have resulted in no race has been followed by a feeling of satisfaction that the Shamrock has shown herself a worthy challenger, and hope runs high that she will wipe out a long record of defeats. Among yachtsmen great admiration is expressed for the way in which Captain Hogarth is reported to have handled the yacht.

The afternoon papers comment in much the same terms as the morning papers. All think that the chances of the Shamrock and the Columbia are about equal and all are gratified at the extreme friendliness displayed by the Americans. The Pall Mall Gazette says:

"Never have the qualities so peculiar to Anglo-Saxons—chivalrous determination to fight a contest to the end on a fair field and without favor—been more conspicuous than they were in yesterday's race."

The marquis of Dufferin, commander of the Royal Ulster Yacht club, replying to the Associated Press telegrams, speaks as follows: "From yesterday's abortive race it is quite impossible to form a reliable opinion as to the result of future contests."

SAYS COLUMBIA WILL WIN.

New York, Oct. 4.—John R. Spear, the nautical expert, says:

"In spite of the fact that a lack of wind prevented the yachts covering their course within the time limit, and in spite of the manifest superiority of Captain Hogarth's seamanship, the details of the trial show that when the wind comes alike to both the Columbia outruns, out-reaches and outpoints the Shamrock in winds from fresh down to light. The Shamrock will not get the cup."

WHO WILL BE THE NEW JUDGE

W. J. VESEY AND J. B. HARPER APPEAR TO LEAD.

Attorney Henton Steps Aside in the Interests of His Partner—

Others Suggested.

The successor to Judge C. M. Dawson on the superior court bench will be a republican and already the friends of two or three candidates are at work in the interest of their candidate. The law provides that in case of a vacancy the governor shall appoint a successor, who will hold until the next general election, which, in this case, will be in November, 1900. A successor must then be chosen and as soon as the winner qualifies he will take the office and fill out the unexpired term, which ends November 24, 1902.

The first republican attorney approached this morning said to The Sentinel that the only sure way to determine the number of candidates was to count the republican attorneys, but this isn't a fact. The names most frequently suggested are W. J. Vesey and James B. Harper. Colonel Robertson's name was suggested, as was also that of William Leonard, but it is stated authoritatively that the two latter will not ask for the appointment. A Sentinel reporter talked to Mr. Vesey, who stated without hesitancy that he was a candidate for the appointment. O. N. Henton, Mr. Vesey's partner, was a candidate in 1898, but he has stepped out of the way and is for Mr. Vesey. Mr. Harper said to The Sentinel that it was too soon to talk about the appointment, but B. F. Harper asserts that his brother is a candidate. Other republicans are also using their influence in behalf of Mr. Harper and it appears now that the appointment is certain to fall to Mr. Vesey or Mr. Harper. The former is a member of the state central committee and will have some substantial backing. Mr. Harper once ran for judge and his friends claim now that he should have the appointment in payment for the sacrifice made in that race. Mr. Harper himself says that it is a question whether it would pay an attorney to give up a lucrative practice for one year on the bench. It is expected that the appointment will be made immediately after Judge Dawson's funeral. By next Monday there will probably be a republican judge in the superior court.

TRANSVAAL DELEGATES RETURN TO THEIR HOMES.

The Result of Political Discussion in Pan-Presbyterian Meeting in Washington.

Washington, Oct. 4.—As a result of a political discussion that was injected into the meeting of the Pan-Presbyterian Alliance yesterday when the alliance refused to entertain the resolution in favor of arbitration in the Transvaal dispute, both of the South African delegates today submitted a letter requesting that their names be stricken from the rolls of the alliance. They are Rev. P. G. J. Meiring, of Johannesburg, and H. S. Bosman, of Pretoria.

Mr. Bosman has already left Washington to return to his people in South Africa. Dr. Meiring is in receipt of a cablegram from Johannesburg begging him to return to his people in view of the critical situation there.

The letter of withdrawal was not made public in the convention, but was referred to the business committee without reading and an effort was made to find Dr. Meiring and secure his withdrawal. He disappeared, however, and the effort was unavailing.

JUDGE DAWSON DEAD

The Eminent Jurist Yields to Disease at a Time When Hope Had Begun to Rise.

ELOQUENT TRIBUTES OF ASSOCIATES.

Hon. Charles M. Dawson, judge of the superior court of Allen county, prominent as a citizen, eminent as a lawyer and distinguished as a jurist, died this morning at his home on West Wayne street.

The end came at 5:45 o'clock. While Judge Dawson's condition has been recognized as critical for some days, the voiceless messenger came just at a time when an apparent improvement in the patient's condition had buoyed up the faltering hopes of

and their daughter, took an extended western trip in the hope that the change of scene and climate would be of benefit to him, but little relief was secured. After their return some weeks ago Judge Dawson resumed his work upon the bench of the superior court, but it was evident to those who were with him that he was far from well. Two weeks ago he was obliged to relinquish professional duties, but not until a week later was he compelled to take to his bed. His physician diagnosed his trouble as Bright's disease, but it was hoped relief might be obtained from the acute stage which threatened, and that the patient might again be able to get about. Despite all efforts to this end he grew steadily worse, and for some days his condition has been alarming. It was realized that the end was near, though the sudden turn following the improvement last evening was a most severe shock, and thousands of saddened hearts today tell eloquently of the love and respect and esteem which the people held for their distinguished fellow-citizen.

The immediate cause of Judge Dawson's death was uraemic poisoning which resulted from Bright's disease. The funeral arrangements have not been determined upon and announcement of the services will be made at a later date.

BAR WILL MEET.

Judge O'Rourke announced this morning that there will be a meeting of the bar at 10 o'clock Thursday morning in the circuit court room to take action on the death of Judge C. M. Dawson. It is requested that every member of the bar be present.

JUDGE DAWSON'S LIFE.

Charles M. Dawson was a native of northern Indiana and practically his entire life had been spent as a citizen of Fort Wayne. He had not reached an advanced age, but his active life of little more than half a century has left its impress upon the professional, business and social circles of the city in which he lived.

Judge Dawson was born at Spencer, DeKalb county, February 22, 1848. He was of English descent, his ancestors coming to America from the north of England in 1685. They settled at Dawsonville, Md., where some of their descendants have resided for more than two centuries. The grandfather of Judge Dawson removed to Dearborn county, Indiana, in 1798, and here the judge's father, Reuben J. Dawson, was born in 1811. He came to Fort Wayne in 1830 and afterwards settled at Spencer, DeKalb county, where he resided until his death in 1859.

Judge Dawson's parents were people of much intelligence, culture and refinement and the father held many offices of prominence and distinction in the early history of this section. The son was early given such educational facilities as were possible at home in those days and then entered Pennsylvania college, at Gettysburg, for a course of three years. He then returned to Fort Wayne and became cashier of the Merchants' National bank. The inclinations of the young man were clearly toward the law, however, and he entered the law office of Judge John Morris and began a course of study. Later he entered the law school at Albany, N. Y., from which he was graduated with high honors in 1877.

Returning to Fort Wayne, the young attorney at once began the practice of his profession, in which he had been singularly successful. In 1879 he was appointed prosecuting attorney by Governor James D. Williams and was elected to the same office by the people in 1880, 1882 and again in 1884. His administration of this office was efficient and fearless. He successfully conducted the prosecution for murder of McDonald, who was hanged in this city in October, 1883, and also of Boyle and Snurr, who were sentenced to life terms in the penitentiary.

His prominence and ability in the legal profession were again recognized in 1890, when Mr. Dawson was elected judge of the superior court of Allen county. So fully did

HIS FLAG IS DOWN.

ADMIRAL DEWEY HAS LEFT THE CRUISER OLYMPIA.

DETACHED FROM HIS SHIP

ORDER IS PURSUANT TO HIS OWN REQUEST.

GOES TO VERMONT MONDAY

THE OLYMPIA IS TO BE GIVEN EXTENSIVE REPAIRS.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—Admiral Dewey made an early start today to fill a number of engagements. After breakfast he joined one of his associate officers for a stroll out Connecticut avenue, and on returning, proceeded to the navy department, accompanied by Admiral Farquhar, the new commander of the north Atlantic station, and Captain Lamberth, his chief of staff, and a Chinese body servant.

Few people were aware of the admiral's coming, so there was not much of a demonstration when he entered the department.

The admiral went to see Secretary Long and talk over his plans for the immediate future, and as to the present Secretary Long promptly gave notice that the department was willing to give him perfect liberty to do as he pleased.

The admiral was, therefore, at his instance, detached formally from the Olympia after this date.

He will telegraph the executive officer of the ship at Tompkinsville to haul down his flag today, and thus will terminate his connection with the cruiser which for more than two years has been his home.

In accordance with projects already planned, the admiral will go to Vermont Monday as the guest of W. Seward Webb at Shelburne farms, near Burlington.

After a reception at the state capital on the 13th inst., he will go to Boston to attend the reception there in his honor on the 14th inst.

The Olympia will meanwhile have arrived at that place, for her orders issued today are to proceed at once from New York to Boston to be put out of commission and be extensively repaired.

After the Boston ceremonies Admiral Dewey is expected to return to Washington to meet his colleagues of the Philippine commission. Secretary Long today said that the admiral's time probably would be fully occupied in the deliberations of the commission for some months to come and meanwhile, in order to leave him free for this work, he will not be assigned to any naval duties.

Further than this point the department has not yet undertaken to define its plans for Admiral Dewey's future.

When all of these details had been arranged, the admiral walked over to the white house to keep an appointment with the president, to discuss the Philippine situation.

The admiral remained with the president an hour. President Schurman, of the Philippine commission, was also at the white house and joined Admiral Dewey as he left the president.

THEY FAVOR DIAZ.

City of Mexico, Oct. 4.—Several hundred prominent citizens met here and initiated measures for holding early next year a national convention to nominate candidates for president and members of the supreme court. This movement is spontaneous and entirely apart from the office-holding class and the sentiment developed in the conferences strongly favors renominating President Diaz. Public sentiment in financial, commercial and manufacturing circles is largely in favor of renominating General Diaz, whose continued presence at the head of affairs is believed to be essential to national progress.

WILL HELP IN OHIO.

Topeka, Kas., Oct. 4.—Governor Stanley has consented to go to Ohio to assist the republicans in the state campaign. The governor will speak October 26, 27 and 28 at places yet to be selected by the state committee.

LEAVES FOR CHICAGO.

N. C. Smith, for a number of years one of the managers of the Temple theater, left Tuesday for Chicago, where he will make his future home. Mr. Smith will be identified with the Mexican Land and Investment company, which also is interested in the zinc mines at Joplin, Mo., and part of Mr. Smith's time will be spent in the Missouri city.

SENTENCE WAS SUSPENDED

AND THE GAY AND WOODS BOYS GIVEN TO PARENTS.

Circuit and Superior Court Have Adjourned for the Week—Court News.

There was sorrow depicted in Judge O'Rourke's face this morning when immediately after circuit court convened, he announced that none but business of the utmost importance would be transacted this week on account of the death of Judge C. M. Dawson. The case against Isom Ireland, of Woodburn, who is charged with assault with intent to kill, was to have been tried and the jury were in their seats. Judge O'Rourke dismissed the jury and postponed the trial.

The court, however, decided to hear the evidence in the case against Orin Woods and Harold Gay, the boys arrested for entering Noah Fager's saloon and stealing drinkables. Mrs. Woods was present with Judge John Morris and told Judge O'Rourke that a childless cousin living in Pulaski county was desirous of taking her son and promised to send him there the judge suspending sentence. The parents of Harold Gay fought for the freedom of their boy and on their promise to keep him in school and out of mischief the judge also suspended sentence. He lectured the lad and told him he would not be given another chance if brought into court.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Special Judge S. M. Hench convened superior court and ordered the following order to be made on the court records: "And it being suggested that Honorable C. M. Dawson, the regular judge of this court, having died this day, it is ordered that said court stand adjourned until the successor of said judge is appointed and qualified."

WANTS A DIVORCE.

Through her attorney, J. R. Bittlinger, Ada B. Stremmel has commenced suit for divorce from William H. Stremmel. The couple were married in June, 1895, and lived together one year, when the complaint alleges the defendant wholly abandoned plaintiff and has since failed to provide for her support. She asks for the custody of their three-year-old daughter and for the right to resume her maiden name, Ada B. Hamilton.

FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE.

In the circuit court Diederick W. Gieseking commences suit against Albert J. Steger, Christian Luhnman, Anna Luhnman, Charles Meyers and Anna Meyers to set aside alleged fraudulent conveyance and judgment for $1,400 on note. The plaintiff alleges that Messrs. Luhnman and Steger gave him a note. Later Mr. Luhnman transferred his property to Charles and Anna Meyers, who in turn transferred the property to Anna Luhnman for the purpose of defrauding plaintiff. He asks that conveyance be set aside and that judgment be rendered against Luhnman for $1,400.

NOTES.

Mary C. Brown commences proceedings against Charles H. Hudgson. The suit is for location of way of necessity.

Judge O'Rourke has issued naturalization papers to Christian Greenwald.

CARNIVAL IS ON.

FALL CELEBRATION GETS UNDER WAY.

FEAST AT CENTVIRE PARK

ATTRACTS QUITE A LARGE CROWD TODAY.

RACES COMMENCE TOMORROW

GREAT PROGRAM OF STREET ATTRACTIONS.

Calhoun street and other thoroughfares in the downtown section are bathed in a profusion of flags and bunting in honor of the fall celebration, which opened today. The weather has been most pleasant, and while the crowd in attendance is as yet not up to expectations, the attendance tomorrow and on succeeding days promises to be much better.

A crowd that numbered between three thousand and four thousand people attended the barbecue at Centlivre park today and feasted without money and without price. Only a small crowd was present when the waiters began serving at 11 o'clock, but crowded street cars soon deposited hungry multitudes there and the eatables and other refreshments began to disappear with remarkable celerity. There was an abundance of eatables and other refreshments and the Wayne Tent band discoursed music. The exercises at the park closed at 3 o'clock.

The street program of the carnival proper opened this afternoon at 4 o'clock and the first event was the balloon ascension at the jail flats. At 4:30 Miss Nemo, the lady wonder, was buried alive on Wayne street at a point opposite the Fruit house. The grave had been prepared, the pall bearers were on hand and a large crowd was present to witness the interment. Miss Nemo will remain under ground until Friday afternoon, when she will be resurrected.

The illuminated bicycle parade will be one of the most enjoyable of the public demonstrations. The chairman of the committee, A. L. Randall, says that the parade will develop some entirely new features, and also says there will be more decorated and illuminated bicycles on tonight than were ever before seen on the streets of Fort Wayne. The parade will form at 7:30 o'clock at Harrison and Berry streets, and headed by the Wayne Tent band and Marion Black's automobile, will pass over the following route: East on Berry to Calhoun, to Washington, to Rockhill, to Wayne, to Griffith, to Berry, to Calhoun, to Montgomery, to Barr, to Wayne, to Monroe, to Berry, to Harrison and disband.

THURSDAY'S PROGRAM.

11 a. m. to 1 p. m.—Civic parade through principal streets, forming at Barr and Berry streets; A. M. Schmidt, marshal.

1:30 p. m.—Running and trotting races at Driving park; purses, $400.

7 p. m.—Trapeze performance at court house square.

7:30 p. m.—Butchers' parade.

9 p. m.—Colored cake walk on asphalt pavement, Wayne street, Calhoun to Harrison; music by full brass band.

9 to 11 p. m.—Band concert at court house square.

MARSHAL OF THE PARADE.

A. M. Schmidt, clerk of the public boards, will be the marshal of the civic and industrial parade on Thursday. Merchants, manufacturers, business men and civic bodies intending to participate in the parade will report to him at the corner of Wayne and Barr streets before 10 o'clock on Thursday morning. The parade is expected to move promptly at 10 and no delay can be tolerated on account of the presence of the fire department, which can not be kept long from its quarters.

FOOT BALL SATURDAY.

An additional feature for the carnival will be had in the shape of a foot ball game between the Huntington High school foot ball team and Fort Wayne's crack High school team. This year's High school team is the best that has been put on the field for years. Their ability was demonstrated last Saturday when they vanquished a picked team from this city which sailed under the name of the South Waynes. Nothing need be said of the Huntington team, as their reputation is widespread in foot ball circles. Captain Evans, of the High school, is confident of victory and a good, close game may be expected. The game will take place at League park at the foot of Calhoun street Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp.

SESSSIONS NEARLY CLOSED.

LAST DAY OF DISTRICT CONVENTION OF I. C. M. S.

Resolutions of Thanks Are Adopted—Andrews Chosen for the Next Convention.

This morning's session of the Indiana Christian Missionary society of the Fifth district of Indiana, opened at 9 o'clock this morning with a praise service led by Rev. P. J. Rice. At the close of the devotional service the different committees presented their reports. The committee on nominations presented the following report: For president, W. T. Wells, of Huntington, Ind.; for vice president, W. F. Groom, of Wabash; for secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Mitten, of Fort Wayne.

This report was unanimously adopted and the officers were elected for the ensuing year. L. L. Carpenter and W. T. Wells, the committee on resolutions, presented the following, which was adopted:

"Resolved, That we express our hearty thanks and appreciation for the many marks of kindness and hospitality extended the visiting delegates of the Fifth District convention by the two congregations of the Christian churches in Fort Wayne, the West Jefferson and the West Creighton avenue churches, in opening their homes and hearts and altars to us while in their midst. Second, That we desire to express our thanks to the daily papers of this city for the notices they have given from day to day of the proceedings of the convention during its sittings. That we extend a vote of thanks to Brother Rice for his faithful five years' service. That one general collection be taken instead of three and that it be devoted to paying the general expenses."

The committee on place of meeting reported in favor of Andrews, Ind., and it was decided to hold the next meeting there.

This afternoon's session was opened at 2 o'clock with a praise service, after which the following papers were read:

"Indiana State Work; Eight Hundred Contributing Schools and $3,000 for 1900," by E. N. Tucker; "A County Superintendent for Christian Sunday Schools; the Need," by John Dalman; "Southern Indiana's Cry; Shall It be Answered? How? When?" by W. T. Wells; "Parliament on Financial Support of State Sunday School Work," by G. E. Ireland; "Shall We Have a Union Graded Sunday School System? Why? How? When?" by T. J. Legg; "Shall We Have Graded Sunday School Lessons Corresponding to a Graded Sunday School System?" led by E. L. Frazier.

After the reading of the papers the meeting adjourned for recess.

The evening session will open at 7:15. The reports of committees will be read after which a sermon will be preached by Rev. A. W. Connor, of Indianapolis, and the subject will be, "Thou and Thy House, or How Shall We Save the Roy?" This evening's meeting will close the convention.

FORCED TO LEAVE.

PRESIDENT ANDRADE WILL QUIT VENEZUELA.

WILL COME TO NEW YORK

ENGAGES PASSAGE FOR HIMSELF AND FAMILY.

REVOLUTIONISTS WILL WIN

GENERAL CASTRO IS NOW IN FRONT OF CARACAS.

New York, Oct. 4.—A cable dispatch has been received in this city from Caracas to the effect that the president, Ignacio Andrade, has engaged passage for himself and family on the Red line steamer Philadelphia, which leaves Guayana on the 10th for Ponce, Porto Rico, and New York. It is generally believed he will go to Ponce. If this dispatch is authentic, it means that President Andrade regards himself defeated by the insurgents under General Caprio Castro and will leave the country to save himself. Later the advices received here say that General Castro and his advance guard are at El Valle, which is only three miles from Caracas.

General Castro, however, has declared against entering the capital, as a battle there would entail the loss of the lives of many disinterested persons. He wishes, therefore, to engage the government troops just outside the city. The latter, however, show no disposition to meet the rebels in a decisive battle.

The revolutionary forces have been augmented by the followers of Gen. Jose Manuel Hernandez, who is now in prison in Caracas. Thus far the latter have fought independently of the Castro forces. Gen. Samuel Acosta, one of General Hernandez's leading officers, has been appointed military governor of the state of Carabobo, which has fallen into rebel hands. General Acosta is the person who killed President Crespo in battle.

There are now said to be nearly 2,000 political prisoners in Caracas. The news of insurgent success, it is asserted, has done injury to the credit of the present government. A local firm received a cable order last week from the Venezuelan government for 3,000 rifles, 100,000 cartridges and one Hotchkiss rapid firing gun. The firm, it is declared, refused to make the shipment unless they received pay before delivery.

The Only Cure.

Eczema is more than a skin disease, and no skin remedies can cure it. The doctors are unable to effect a cure, and their mineral mixtures are damaging to the most powerful constitution. The whole trouble is in the blood, and Swift's Specific is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated blood diseases.

Eczema broke out on my daughter, and continued to spread until her head was entirely covered. She was treated by several good doctors, but grew worse. And the dreadful disease spread to her face. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many patent medicines were taken, but without result. Until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished, her head began to heal. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now sixteen years old, and has a magnificent growth of hair. Not a sign of the dreadful disease has ever returned.

Directors of Concordia cemetery held a meeting last evening at the Scheumann undertaking parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hunter returned from New York Tuesday, where they attended the Dewey celebration.

Grand Master Workman T. D. Neel, of the A. O. U. W., is in Fort Wayne for a few days on a visit in the interest of the order.

The death rate for September in this city was far below the average. There were but seventeen interments at Lindenwood cemetery during the month, while the customary average is from forty to fifty for the month.

BOUGHT A CIGAR STORE.

Robert Gallmeyer has purchased the cigar store of Henry Niemann, at Calhoun and Jefferson streets, and assumed possession Tuesday evening. Negotiations have been under way for some time. Mr. Niemann will go to New York, where a very lucrative position has been offered him.

THE HORSE TAMER.

A crowd of about 500 people witnessed the exhibition of horse taming by Professor Gleason at the Princess rink, Tuesday evening. The first horse in the ring was a big gray, with a reputation for nervousness. The animal put up a hard fight and owing to the fact that the taming of the horse took up so much time, it was decided to give him another lesson this evening. The second horse was speedily disposed of, but the third, a handsome bay mare, gave the professor considerable trouble before being subdued and hence case will be disposed of in a second lesson this evening. The last horse in the ring was soon reduced to a state of subjection. At this evening's performance "Jack the Ripper," a country horse with a wide reputation for vice, will be tamed. This animal will allow no one to hitch him to a buggy and the performance tonight will no doubt be doubly interesting. Announcement was made last night that tonight and thereafter all ladies would be admitted free when accompanied by gentlemen.

It is overdoing it just a bit to be pushing the Dewey boom while Mr.

Hanna has a real live fight of his own on hand in Ohio.

Columbia went like an express train. Also like a freight train.

Lipton didn't win that first race, for which Columbia's skipper is not clearly entitled to a vote of thanks.

It is to be devoutly hoped that the barbecue and carnival will not leave a legacy of gamblers and gambling machines as the street fair did last year.

It will be a mighty fine thing from one point of view, if from no other, to have Admiral Dewey run for president. The enthusiasm and most of the votes would be one way and in consequence there would be no contest. Thus business would be spared the bruising that has become inevitable every four years, there would be no campaign assessments necessary, no corruption, no fighting and no oratory worse than is usually heard on the 4th of July. It would all be very fine. But it seems far off.

John Bull appears to be waiting to get an eye blacked in order to feel like fighting. There are, however, two urgent reasons why the British government delays aggressive action, and the Boers are likely to misinterpret both of them. Chamberlain is exhausting every means of peace, and the war office wants to be thoroughly ready to fight before fighting. The Boers expect war and are ready for it. When Britain once begins there is not likely to be a repetition of the follies of 1884. There will be preparation, determination and knowledge.

The worst is now over New York has got through "bauging the field-piece and twanging the lyre" and Washington has shot off her noise and Admiral Dewey has received the handsome sword given him by congress in behalf of the people of the United States. The hero of Manila may now be regarded as formally, officially and in fact returned and received. This heroic man, who hesitates not to attack hostile fleets nor to tackle grand receptions, has one more trial to encounter, but it is likely to prove less severe than those he has already so splendidly survived. The people of his native Vermont want to give him a suitable homecoming, and that will have to be. When it is over Admiral Dewey will be absolved from excitement and noise, unless it shall be he concludes to be a candidate for the presidency. In which case—well, he will need rest before beginning.

THE WHITE WINGS.

The first of the international yacht races for the America's cup between Columbia, the defender, and Shamrock, the challenger, while not a factor in determining supremacy, is in many respects satisfactory, nevertheless. It shows that the two boats are a pretty match and capable of furnishing sport of a most exciting kind. The drawn race, however, proves that Columbia must be better sailed than she was yesterday if she is to win. Technically Columbia appears to be the better boat. But Shamrock is almost, if not quite, her match in all sailing qualities. So evenly indeed are the boats matched that the issue of the series of races is likely to be determined by the seamanship of their respective skippers.

Some important lessons were doubtless gathered by Captain Barr out of the drawn race, and when the yachts put out to sea for another fight the cup defender may be expected to be more taut and trim and snug for her run than in the first race.

A gratifying incident of the race is that it was Columbia and not Shamrock that suffered from interference of excursion craft. It must be the desire of every true sportsman that the challenger have a clear field and fair wind. There will be no glory in winning by advantage to which we are not entitled.

DEATH OF JUDGE DAWSON.

The death of Judge Charles M. Dawson brings to the people of this city and county the shock of genuine grief. He was affectionately regarded for his fine gentility, his native gentility and his steadfast friendship, as he was esteemed for his conspicuous abilities and stern integrity. His circle of intimate acquaintances was broad in and beyond Allen county and all who knew him liked and respected him. Though he was a staunch partisan, with him friendship did not cease when politics began and his loyalty to his friends and their devotion to him were above and beyond the corroding touch of rancor.

Judge Dawson was the product of a sturdy epoch in the history of northern Indiana, of which he was a native. His distinguished father, the lamented Hon. Reuben J. Dawson, was an early pioneer and one of a class with the Ewings, the Edsalls, the McCullochs and many others who, coming here when the soil was virgin and the forest primeval, constructed the framework of civic empire and put an indelible impress upon the social and political growth which germinated where they had so ruggedly labored. Judge Dawson came upon life's scene about the close of the formative period, and it was vouchsafed to him to bear a part with his contemporaries in giving finish and refinement to the political and social structures which earlier hands had reared. He bore his part well and with signal distinction and multiplied honors.

As a lawyer Judge Dawson was diligent, keen, laborious and successful. Nine years ago he was called by his fellow-citizens to the superior bench in this county and his career in that exalted and exacting position was alike honorable to himself and satisfactory to the public. Twice he was re-elected, a proof beyond doubt or debate that he fulfilled the trying duties of his office as the public would have them administered.

On the bench Judge Dawson was impartial and courageous. He believed in the equality of all men before the law. With him the law was a means, not an end. He followed the changeless course of justice, looking to the law not as an arbiter, but a guide. He was immensely painstaking and exact and his decisions were in singularly few instances ever reversed by higher courts. Judge Dawson's career upon the bench is free from blemish. His integrity was never assailed and death at last lifted from his shoulders the judge's ermine as spotless as when he first put it on. In politics Judge Dawson was a democrat. He was a stout partisan, but never intolerant. His democracy, bred in him though it was, had the thorough approval of his maturer judgment, his learning and his experience. His services to the party were conspicuous, influential and freely bestowed.

He will be greatly missed in wonted circles, from the bench which he honored, from the profession which he graced, from the citizenship which he made better and stronger for having been a part of it.

DISCUSSED A UNION DEPOTIMPORTANT MEETING OF THE COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Committee Appointed to Act With the Municipal Committee—Other Live Projects Taken Up.

The directors of the Commercial club met in special session Tuesday evening for the purpose of transacting several important matters of business. President S. M. Foster was chairman. It was decided to collect dues from September 1st and the bonds of the secretary and treasurer were fixed at $500 each. Councilman Hench's resolution for the appointment of a committee to co-operate with the Commercial club in the interesting of railroads in the erection of a union depot was read. A letter from City Clerk Manning, naming the members of the committee appointed by the council was also read. It was decided to act with the city, and the following committee was appointed by President Foster: F. V. Culbertson, E. F. Yarnelle, Robert Millard, W. F. Graeter, Theo. F. Thome, P. A. Randall, John W. White, F. M. Smack, Henry Beadell, Ben Lehman and A. J. Moynihan. President Foster was chosen chairman of this committee. P. A. Randall and W. F. Graeter were appointed a committee to represent the club in the negotiations to secure for Fort Wayne the headquarters of the Railroad Trainmen who have expressed a desire to locate here. Secretary Manning was instructed to communicate the general officers of the Catholic Knights with a view of having them again locate in the city. Hon. William Fortune, of Indianapolis, who will be here on Thursday evening of next week, will be the guest of Alexander Johnson while in the city and his visit was discussed by the members of the club. Several other matters were given attention, after which an adjournment was made.

TEARS FOR A SHIP.

San Francisco, Oct. 4.—Shipping men fear that some disaster has befallen the ship Cyrus Wakefield, which sailed from New York for this port 183 days ago. She was last heard from at Port Stanley, where she put in after the death at sea of her master, Captain Henry. She left Port Stanley eight-nine days ago in charge of Captain Chapman and should have reached here nearly a month ago. Five per cent. reinsurance is being paid on her. The ship Valkyrie reports passing the mast of a ship in the track of vessels rounding Cape Horn. Mariners say that this may have belonged to the Cyrus Wakefield, which is possibly now making slow progress under a jury rig.

INDICTED FOR PERJURY.

Kankakee, Ill., Oct. 4.—Morris Goldfon, Reuben Miller, Benny Goldman and Floyd Carry, all of Chicago, have been indicted for perjury here. Goldfon is a detective. Last May he testified that Sydney Ringo, colored, had confessed to the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Chiquiquay at St. Anne, in October, 1898. Ringo was in St. Anne a few hours before the murder and was on trial for the crime. Goldfon hoped to secure $700 reward offered for the arrest and conviction of the murderer. The others who were indicted corroborated Goldfon's story. Ringo proved he was in jail when the purported confession was made and was acquitted.

Purest City Air.

Scientists have determined that the purest air in cities is found about twenty-five feet above the street, and hence it is concluded that the healthiest apartments are those on the third floor.

The Demand for Champagne.

The total demand of the world for champagne is about 22,000,000 bottles annually, a demand which can be readily met for some years to come by the supplies held in stock in the vast cellars at Rheims, where one noted firm alone keeps a standing reserve of 9,000,000 bottles.

RANKE RESIGNS.

DECISION WAS REACHED LAST EVENING.

CAPTAIN TO QUIT THE ARMY

RESIGNATION ON ITS WAY TO COLONEL BULLARD.

BUSINESS INTERESTS HERE

REQUIRE CAPTAIN RANKE'S PERSONAL ATTENTION.

Tuesday evening Capt. William Ranke, of this city, forwarded to Colonel Bullard, at Fort Crook, Neb., his resignation as captain in the Thirty-ninth regiment of United States volunteers. This announcement will come as a distinct surprise, and no one can possibly regret more than the captain himself that circumstances which compelled the step.

Ever since Captain Ranke's appointment, which came a few weeks ago as a surprise and without solicitation on his part, the officer has been endeavoring to arrange his business interests in this city so that they would not suffer from the absence of his personal attention. To leave them meant a sacrifice that was fully appreciated by the officer and his friends, and it was hoped that some solution of the problem might develop.

For several weeks the captain has been visiting Ohio towns on recruiting duty for his regiment, and has enlisted a large number of men. He returned to the city Saturday, and as the regiment was filled, was in daily expectation of receiving orders to proceed westward to join it. The anticipated arrangement of his business interests could not be arranged, and last evening he regretfully forwarded to Colonel Bullard his resignation.

Captain Ranke will remain in Fort Wayne. When seen by a reporter for The Sentinel this morning, he stated that he deeply regretted the necessity of the move, but it was the only solution of the problem that presented itself, as his business interests in this city demanded his personal attention, and he could not afford the sacrifice which leaving them involved. He has a splendid record as an officer in both the Indiana national guard and in the volunteer service, and the experience in the Philippines was one which he looked forward to with much pleasurable anticipation, until circumstances compelled him to resign his commission.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Lower cables and higher English consols reflected an easier feeling in regard to the South African situation, the wheat market here opening dull and easier, 1/2@3/4c under yesterday's close. Liverpool followed the local decline of Tuesday, with a drop of 3/4d. December opened at 73 3/4@73 1/2c, advanced to 73 1/2@73 3/4c and declined to 73 1/2c. Northwest receipts were 926 cars, as compared with 799 last week and 1,010 a year ago. Local receipts were 191 cars, 5 of contract grade.

Corn was quiet, in sympathy with wheat. December opened a shade under yesterday at 30@30 1/2c and advanced to 30 1/2c. The sharp advance in ocean freights militated against export sales. Local receipts were 680 cars.

Oats were easy in sympathy with the other cereals. The market became steady at the decline, on a fair shipping demand. December opened at 23 1/2c and advanced to 23 3/4c. Local receipts were 218 cars. Provisions were lower with wheat and the falling off in hog prices. There was some buying by shorts. January pork opened 2 1/2c lower at $9.75; lard opened 2 1/2c under at $5.80@5.82 1/2; and January ribs opened unchanged to 2 1/2c lower at $5.07 1/2@5.10.

These prices ruled for some time.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows: Wheat—Dec., 73 1/2c; May, 78 1/2c; Corn—Oct., 31c; Dec., 30 1/2c; Jan., 29 1/2c; May, 35 1/2c; Oats—Oct., 23 1/2c; Dec., 23 3/4c; May, 24 1/2c; Pork—Oct., $8.10; Dec., $8.30; Jan., $8.75; Lard—Oct., $5.37 1/2; Dec., $5.45; Jan., $5.57 1/2@5.60; Ribs—Oct., $5.12 1/2; Dec., $4.97 1/2; Jan., $5.07 1/2@5.10; Flax—Cash N. W., $1.18 1/2; Cash S. W., $1.16 1/2; Oct., $1.15; Dec., $1.14 1/2.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—Estimated receipts of hogs today, 31,000; tomorrow, 31,000; left over, 4,559. Market steady. Mixed and butchers, $4.30@4.72 1/2; good heavy, $4.30@

4.65; rough heavy, $4.10@4.20; light, $4.40@4.50. Cattle—Receipts, 15,500. Market steady to strong. Bees, $4.40@4.70; cows and heifers, $1.75@4.90; Texas steers, $3.35@4.25; stockers and feeders, $3.00@4.80.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 4.—The recovery in stocks on the London exchange caused an advance at the opening here. Railroads generally advanced a sharp fraction, but in the case of Norfolk and Western the rise was 1 1/2 and in Louisville a point. A number of the specialties showed gains between 1 and 2 points, including Tobacco, Sugar, Reading first preferred and Tennessee Coal.

The buying movement slackened and there was a general setback. The reaction extended to 2 in Great Western preferred "B" and a point each in Sugar and Tennessee Coal. Railroads in the main held well. There was a sharp rise in New York Air Brake, Pacific Mail, Wheeling and Lake Erie second preferred and Norfolk and Western preferred. Active bidding for Pullman lifted it 1/2 to 102 1/2. The list generally arose above the opening level.

Stocks which had made the most headway were realized on. Pullman fell 3 1/2, but recovered partly. Substantial losses also occurred in General Electric, Pacific Mail and Tennessee Coal. The downward turn put a stop to the activity, business dwindling to almost nothing. Twin City Rapid Transit dropped 4 1/2 and Third Avenue rose 3 1/2.

Sales of stocks to noon, 135,148 shares. Higher prices were obtained for bonds, but the demand was light and confined to semi-speculative issues.

There was slightly more activity in the market late today and prices were advanced to the highest level. Sugar rose to 14 1/2 and Lackawanna gained 1 1/2. The decline in the money rate was the motive for the bidding up of prices, but the demand was light and soon satisfied, and prices sagged again. Sugar rose again in the final dealings above 142 and Consolidated Gas jumped to 190 1/2. The closing was dull and firm below the best at net gains approaching or exceeding a point in many cases.

NEW YORK PRODUCE.

New York, Oct. 4.—Butter—Receipts, 2,124 pkgs; market firm; western creamery, 17@24c; June creamery, 10@22 1/2c; factory, 14@16c.

JUDGE DAWSON YIELDS TO DEATH

he respond to the requirements of this important capacity that he was re-elected in 1894 and again in 1898. Death cut short his judicial career before the completion of the term for which he was elected.

Politically, Judge Dawson had always been a staunch and consistent democrat, but in his nature there was nothing of the narrow and bigoted partisan. He believed implicitly in the principles of his party and adhered to them unflinchingly, but conceded to others what he claimed for himself. Personal animosity was not a part of Judge Dawson's political creed and his friends were as numerous in other political parties as in his own. He was a fluent and graceful speaker and had rendered his party valuable aid upon the stump.

Judge Dawson's family relations have been ideal. He was united in marriage in 1870 to Miss Elizabeth Maler, of this city, and in their pretty home on West Wayne street the highest type of home love and trust and consideration is found. Two children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Dawson—a son, Ronald, and a daughter, Miss Hadjie. Judge Dawson was a Knight Templar, a Scottish rite Mason of the thirty-second degree and a member of the Mystic Shrine.

TRIBUTES OF OLD FRIENDS.

The death of Judge Dawson was a profound shock to his friends of the Fort Wayne bar. All knew him intimately and all were his friends. Among the older members of the bar, who had known him and associated with him intimately since in his young manhood he began the pursuit of the profession in which his honors and distinctions were won, were deeply sorrow-stricken. All paid glowing tributes to him as a man, a lawyer, a citizen and a judge. The Sentinel presents the following interviews with some of his older friends of the Fort Wayne bar:

The venerable Judge John Morris, who knew Judge Dawson intimately from his boyhood, was deeply affected by his death. Concerning it he said: "The death of Judge Dawson, though not unexpected, will produce a profound impression upon the people of Allen county, and especially upon the people of Fort Wayne. He was universally regarded as a true and honest man—the noblest work of God. He was a true and devoted husband; a kind and indulgent parent. Few people loved and sought to serve the people of Allen county with a warmer devotion than he. Judge Dawson was admirably qualified for the high and honorable position conferred upon him by the people. As a lawyer he was well read and able; he was singularly straightforward, so much so that he was rarely misunderstood. Sometimes, as must always be the case, he fell into error, but was not only the first to detect the mistake, but he was always ready to correct it. No pride of opinion prevented him from correcting any error into which he had fallen. He comprehended the complicated questions presented to him with facility and ease, and never feared to do the right. He was a man of genuine moral courage, only anxious that right and justice should be done. Judge Dawson was highly esteemed by all, and all will feel and lament his loss. It is sad that such a man should be taken from us in the prime and vigor of life."

Hon. W. G. Colerick said: "I deeply and sincerely lament the death of Judge Dawson, whom I loved as a true and loyal friend, and for his many noble and lovable traits of character. His death, which was sudden and unexpected, will cause profound sorrow among all classes of our people, who have often manifested their admiration for, and confidence in, him by gratifying all of his political aspirations. He was a noble, honest and just judge, who always endeavored to discharge his judicial duties with fairness and impartiality. He was a man of unswerving integrity, and spotless judicial character—an excellent citizen, devoted husband, loving father and zealous friend, and his untimely death, in the vigor of manhood, will be deplored by all who knew him."

Judge S. M. Hench said: "I knew Judge Dawson intimately for over a quarter of a century. When I first made his acquaintance he was assistant cashier of the Old Merchant's National bank, located where the Hamilton National bank now stands. After the Merchant's bank went into liquidation, he commenced to study law, and after his admission to the bar, I saw much of him. He acted as deputy circuit prosecuting attorney for a short time before he was elected prosecuting attorney of the circuit court in 1882, by virtue of which office he was prosecuting attorney of the criminal court, when I was judge of that court. As prosecutor of the pleas of the state, he was able and made a brilliant record in that office, never surpassed by any one holding the office in this part of the state. The judge was noted for his kindness of heart and sympathy for every one who was in trouble. He was a true friend and a man of more than ordinary ability. He took the bench of the superior court in November, 1890, and his career on the bench has been honorable and able—it was able for the reason that he had a natural legal mind of great discrimination and force."

Col. R. S. Robertson spoke with feeling of the dead jurist. He said: "I have known him favorably for upwards of thirty years and was connected with him in some business affairs before he commenced the study of the law. But I watched him through his first beginnings and after his elevation to the bench with considerable interest. Previous to reaching the bench he had but a brief and limited legal experience, so that in the minds of those practicing at the bar there was some question as to his ability to meet the requirements of the position. But we very soon found a determination on his part to sift the legal questions that came before him to the bottom and he soon developed an unexpected ability in looking for and finding authorities to support his views. For a man commencing the study of law so late in life as did Judge Dawson, I think he developed a rather remarkable judicial capacity, and perhaps was the better judge because he had not had a long experience as a simple advocate. I think his talents were above the common order, and as an all-around citizen, man of the world and wearer of the ermine, he leaves a vacant place and one that I am sorry to see vacated at this time."

Hon. Robert Lowry, when asked by The Sentinel reporter to give his impressions of the dead jurist, replied: "What can I say concerning Judge Dawson? Why, after expressing my deep sorrow over his untimely demise, when until recently he appeared in the very prime of his manhood, I can say of him unhesitatingly that he was a most amiable and upright citizen, a good lawyer, and, as a judge, one who always meant to hold the scales of justice in fair and equal poise. Coming into the profession of law after passing through other experiences in business life, he became early in his career noted for the capacity displayed by him as an advocate, and when occupying the position of prosecuting attorney discharged its duties very efficiently. His purpose on the bench was, I think, conceded to be to deal justly with all. The leading trait in the character of Judge Dawson was that of candor and generosity. I could recount a number of instances in which these sterling virtues stood out conspicuously in his disposition and illuminated his manhood, but the present occasion is not the fitting time for that. Suffice it now, by way of passing tribute, to say that he possessed attributes which we all prized and we shall all deplore his loss."

Judge Edward O'Rourke, of the Allen circuit court, was profoundly shocked by the untimely death of his judicial colleague. He said concerning him: "Judge Dawson was humane and kind. He had unbounded charity for his fellow men. He was ambitious to gain and retain the good opinion of the people and to serve them faithfully. He was strongly attached to personal friends and appreciated deeply their disinterested devotion to him. He had a keen sense of right and justice. The sincere man had his profound respect. Cant and hypocrisy were extremely offensive to him. While constantly alive to the propensities of life, he was restive under what he viewed as undue conventional restraint. His motives were pure, his aspirations high and noble. He was a good lawyer and a painstaking, upright judge. He manifested great power as an advocate. His manner was direct and simple. His speeches made in the prosecution of criminal cases were most effective and persuasive. At times he seemed to project a mental force that was irresistible. Like many other minds, he required a powerful exciting cause to reveal his full strength. If he had possessed a power of sustained effort equal to his intellectual faculties, it would be difficult to set limits to his professional achievements."

Lawyer Henry Colerick was badly broken up over the death of Judge Dawson. Between the two men a close and affectionate friendship had endured indissolubly for many years. Of the deceased jurist, Mr. Colerick had this to say: "Judge Dawson was the soul of honor. Like a Chevalier Bayard he was without a stain and above reproach. He wore the heart of real manhood. Brava as a lion among the strong and powerful, yet with the humble and helpless as gentle and as tender as a child. He was a loving husband, a wise and gentle father, a faithful public officer, a loyal friend, a good citizen. My opinion of the deceased is best told when I say that for twenty-five years he bore my warmest friendship."

Samuel L. Morris said: "My association, friendship and intercourse with Judge Dawson dates from early boyhood. In youth he was quick, keen, bright and active. Endowed with a strong, intellectual mind, coupled with magnificent strength, he quickly and thoroughly advanced in his studies, and was early prepared for any calling. He was always, both as a man and boy, noted for being, manly, frank and fearless. He was an open friend, and never a hidden enemy. His ability was of the highest order, and having all his life been an extensive reader, he was well equipped for almost any position. As a lawyer Judge Dawson was faithful, active and successful. As a judge he was fearless, impartial and swift to discern and decide the right. As a result his decisions were rarely reversed, and he secured the highest regard of all the members of the bar by his satisfactory disposition of cases. His death will cause great sorrow, as the loss will not be easily supplied."

Hon. R. C. Bell said: "I have been intimately acquainted with Judge Dawson for almost twenty years. Our relations have been most pleasant and our friendship warm, interrupted only by the natural antagonisms that occasionally arise in active contests in the courts and at the bar. He was a man of broad views and a most liberal generosity, and attracted to himself a large circle of most devoted friends. His counsels were sought in the varied relations of life. While he possessed and always freely expressed strong political convictions, he was tolerant at all times of the views of those who differed with him. His death will be keenly felt and will leave a void hard to fill. His sudden death came to me with a great shock, it being so entirely unanticipated."

Hon. Allen Zollars said: "I have known Judge Dawson during the whole of his professional life. I know of his discouragements in the early years of his practice and know how bravely he met and triumphed over them. He was not bluster in his methods, but had a strong will and a fixed and steady purpose, which led to success. As a lawyer he was careful and especially strong with the juries. As a judge his purpose was to arrive at a fair and correct result as between the parties and at the same time follow the rules and precedents of the law. The result was that while lawyers frequently disagreed with him and took appeals to the supreme court, but very few of his judgments were reversed. He was a man who lived very close to the people and was always very popular and strong with them. He was just in the prime and vigor of his manhood, and humanly speaking, it is difficult to understand why his life should go out at this time. He will be greatly missed by the whole bar, as well as by the many people who know him."

Tamely Among Half-Breed Indians.

An incident of the civilization of the red man is that he is developing insanity, just as white folks do, and therefore the government has bought 160 acres of land near Canton, S. D., whereon to build an asylum to accommodate all the insane Indians of the United States. Indian Commissioner Jones says, however, that there are no insane Indians of pure race. The inmates of the new asylum will be half-breeds.

Feathered Ventriquist.

Many birds form their sounds without opening their bills. The pigeon is a well-known instance of this. Its cooing can be distinctly heard, although it does not open its bill. The call is formed internally in the throat and chest and is only rendered audible by resonance. Similar ways may be observed in many birds and other animals. The clear, loud call of the Cuckoo, according to one naturalist, is the resonance of a note formed in the bird. The whirring of the snipe, which betrays the approach of the bird to the hunter, is an act of ventriloquism. Even the nightingale has certain notes which are produced internally, and which are audible while the bill is closed.

Deadly Bolt of Lightning.

The Bellefontaine (Pa.) Watchman reports a remarkable death-dealing bolt of lightning which killed thirty sheep that were lying under a tree near Potter's Mills, Center county. Few of the flock escaped.

Elephants as Nurses.

Namense women instruct their children to the care of elephants, who are careful never to hurt the little creatures; and if danger threatens, the sagacious animal will curl the child gently up in his trunk and swing it up and out of harm's way upon its own broad back.

Value of Strawberries.

It is claimed now that strawberries as a beautifying tonic cannot be equaled. Skin specialists advocate their use invariably. A dish of them for breakfast every morning and another at luncheon are the directions. They contain more iron than any other fruit, and are particularly good for any one suffering from nervousness.

A perfect extract for the handkerchief and toilet and should at once be delicate and refreshing, stimulating and lasting. These qualities are combined in Satisfaction Bouquet. Try it.

BASE BALL NOTES.

Ed Gaffney has pitched fine ball for the South Bend team this season, having won twenty-nine of the thirty-four games in which he officiated. While at South Bend Sunday Norman Brashear was approached by a man whom he recognized as his father. They had not seen each other in seventeen years.

"Click" Stahl's bat lined out two hits again yesterday, one of them a two-bagger. The Fort Wayne boy also stole two bases, and accepted his only chance in the field.

Chicago is now in the same position in the league race that the team occupied when A. C. Anson managed the team for the last time. And the "old man" doesn't appear to be a bit sorry.

Tim Flood accepted six of the seven fielding chances offered him yesterday and was a participant in two first double plays. He failed to connect with the ball while at bat. Tim was also credited with one sacrifice hit.

"Doggie" Miller and Bergen are arranging to leave Fort Wayne for their respective homes this week. Miller goes to Eau Claire, Wis., and Bergen goes to Massachusetts. Guests will remain in Fort Wayne two or three weeks and Brashear, Hollingsworth and Rabb will stay here all winter.

The attorneys got their revenge yesterday. They played the court house nine for the second time and were beaten by a score of 22 to 16. A. E. Thomas says that but for the absence of Lee Minda the lawyers would certainly have won. Will Edsall pitched for the lawyers and Geo. Lindemuth handled the sphere for the court house boys. Ira Bolden umpired and Phil Colerick and Sheriff Melching ran bases when any of the players were tired.

SPORTING NOTES.

Boralma, by Boreal, won the great three-year-old Futurity at Lexington Tuesday. The wonderful three-year-old won the third, fifth and sixth heats and in the third took a record of 2:13. Idolita won the first and second heats, taking a record of 2:13 and Etacy won the fourth heat in 2:11 1/2, the fastest time ever made in the race. Boralma was purchased before the race by Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, for $17,000, but he cleared more than twice enough in bets to pay for the great three-year-old. Gus Macey received $4,000 for driving Boralma to victory.

Hal B. was beaten again yesterday, this time by Eyelet. He won the first two heats in 2:08 1/2 and 2:08 and then lost the next three, the fastest of which was the third in 2:03 1/2. This is Hal B.'s second defeat this season.

Jack Root, the Chicago middleweight, came within an "ace" of knocking out Frank Craig, the "Harlem Coffee Cooler," Tuesday evening. Root was given the decision at the end of the sixth round.

The Notre Dame foot ball eleven is this afternoon playing a game with the Chicago university eleven in Chicago. John Eggemann is again at center for the Notre Dames.

The huckster wagon of Frank Dawkins will not be running any more this season.

BAIL WAS FIXED AT $2,000.

TOM WALSH WAS NOT PLACED ON TRIAL TODAY.

Mrs. Shipman Is In a Dangerous Condition and Could Not Appear in Court.

Thomas F. Walsh, alias C. Francis Bernard, the picture agent who drew a revolver on Mrs. Eliza A. Shipman Tuesday morning, was in police court this morning with his attorney, R. B. Hannan, but he was not placed on trial. Frank J. Shipman, husband of Mrs. Shipman, was present and filed an affidavit charging Walsh with drawing a dangerous weapon. He said that Mrs. Shipman was unable to appear in court, in fact, she had only been conscious an hour or two since Walsh had so badly frightened her and the attending physician, Dr. Fair, was of the opinion that it would be several days before she would be able to leave her bed. The mayor was inclined to accept no bail, especially after Deputy Prosecutor Thomas explained that if Mrs. Shipman should die the prisoner could be held for manslaughter. It was finally decided to fix bond at $2,000, which Walsh was unable to give and went to jail. The preliminary trial was fixed for next Monday, with the understanding that if Mrs. Shipman's condition improved enough the prisoner could have a hearing any day previous.

A number of Walsh's victims were in police court hunting for their pictures. Superintendent Gorsline called at the office in the Bass block and told the clerks to settle all difficulties with customers without having them call at the station, or the place would be closed. Quite a number of persons called at the office and recovered their pictures.

POLICE NOTES.

Joseph Barlick, a drunk arrested by Pennsylvania Detective Harrod, was fined $1 and costs. He was a railroad hunting for work and accumulated too much "booze." Advice received from Barlick's home were to the effect that he was a first-class citizen when not under the influence of liquor.

Leslie Jackett, arrested by Detective Redman for climbing on moving trains, was discharged and ordered to leave the city.

Lee Rennsmith, a lad arrested for climbing on trains by Detective Dinger, was sent to jail pending an investigation of his story. He claims New Bloomfield, Pa., as his home and says he was en route there from Chicago. His father is a printer.

A shopping bag belonging to Miss Lizzie Drake was found and left at the police station.

Captain Doseler and Officers Maden, Blum and White, all of whom had been ill during the last month, were on duty Tuesday.

PERRY TOWNSHIP NEWS.

Mrs. John B. Massom has been quite ill for some time with heart trouble.

The dance which was given by Mr. and Mrs. James Shorden was well attended and all had a good time. Music was furnished by James DeGraange and Sines Barnett. All retired for their homes at 12:30 a. m.

Samuel Simon has gone to Michigan on his wedding trip and will return Tuesday.

Frank Sordlet has been making cider and apple butter all week. He said he was going to live fat this winter.

Misses Clara Bobay and Clara Pepe have been the guests of Frank Sons in South Africa. They will return home Saturday.

FIRM IS RANKE & NUSSBAUM.

NEW PARTNER IN A WELL-KNOWN DRUG STORE.

Charles F. Freese Disposes of His Drug Interests to Joseph G. Nussbaum.

The well-known drug firm of Freese & Ranke went out of existence last evening when the senior partner, Charles F. Freese, sold his interests in the Calhoun street drug store to Joseph G. Nussbaum. The change occurred this morning, though the new partner will not be in the store for a few days.

The change will be a surprise to business circles, as it was not known that Mr. Freese contemplated retiring. The new partner, Mr. Nussbaum, is a young man of fine business qualifications and has had considerable experience in the drug business, besides being a graduate of the Purdue School of Pharmacy. He is a son of Peter Nussbaum, and is well known and very popular in this city. Recently he has been employed as a prescription clerk at the Goeke drug store on Broadway.

The new firm of Ranke & Nussbaum begins business under most favorable circumstances, and will doubtless meet with a large measure of success. Both partners are competent, energetic and popular, and the store has long been a popular pharmacy.

LAFAYETTE TOWNSHIP.

Cutting corn and sowing wheat are almost things of the past.

Digging potatoes is now in order. Quite a number from this locality attended the street fair at Bluffton last week.

The venerable George Bush, who has been ill for some time, is still in a very critical condition.

William Kress, who visited in Chicago the past week, returned home Saturday.

A number of families in this vicinity are entertaining visitors from Ohio, who came on the recent excursion.

Mrs. Aurelia Craig has rented her farm and will move to Huntington to reside permanently.

Misses Viola and Clara Campbell, of Angola, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Van Wormer last week.

Mrs. Charles Neath is critically ill with typhoid fever.

Miss Lizzie Whorledge, of Noble county, is visiting relatives in this locality.

The date for the Lafayette township Sunday school convention has been set for November 4th and 5th at Beech Grove Christian church. A complete program will be given next week.

D. C. Denius, who travels in the interest of his patent farm gate, came home Sunday to spend a few days with his family.

HOAGLAND.

Now is nothing time, and as they are quite plenty, teachers, you will have to make school very interesting to keep the boys from playing truant.

Misses Laura Peltier and Ethel Wadge have been visiting Ida McIntosh for the past few days.

Laudy Bolinger, of Frankfort, Mich., has been spending a ten days' vacation with friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Mary Todd has sold her property here to Mrs. Evans. She will hereafter be a resident of Maples.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Corvill gave a party last Friday evening in honor of Miss Lida Stout, of Fort Wayne. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing parlor games. Refreshments were served.

Rev. James and wife have returned from their summer's vacation. They were accompanied by her brother, who will spend the winter with them and attend the Hoagland high school.

There will be a box social at the school house next Saturday evening. All are invited.

Two of our most brilliant young men, Bert Somers and Harry Kinneer, left last Saturday for Indianapolis to attend the Indiana law school.

Ida McIntosh entertained her Sunday school class last Saturday afternoon at her home. "What a good time and lots of fun we had," is the way the children expressed it.

Dr. DeVilbiss, of Toledo, Ohio, was in town last week looking after the mail. He advised the overseer, John McIntosh, to fix it up and have the yard cleaned off. It would then be pleasant to have entertainments in and a credit to our town, sure.

Last Sabbath morning as Lloyd McIntosh, accompanied by Laura Peltier and Ethel Wadge, was going home from Sunday school at Antioch, the horse became frightened and began to run. In turning the corner at Mr. Todd's the buggy upset and threw the occupants out. Providentially no one was seriously injured, but all sustained severe bruises, Miss Wadge suffering the most.

Our boys suffered defeat last Saturday at Berne, 7 to 13. Two of our players failed to appear.

NINE MILE.

"Jack Frost" has begun to call around quite frequently these evenings while we sleep.

William Duffon and James Rice threshed their oats last week. The yield was quite good.

George Rice and F. Bossler are entertaining guests from Trumbull county, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Danfee called upon friends in Whitley county over Saturday and Sunday of last week.

The Misses Mitchell attended the old settlers' reunion at Ossian last Thursday and called upon acquaintances.

"Those wedding bells are ringing on a moonlight, winter's night"—if you do not believe it, just be quiet.

J. Wesley Hook, one of our popular and highly esteemed young men, made a flying trip to Columbia City Sunday.

Robert Kimmel and family were the guests of friends at Markle over Wednesday, and attended the fair at Bluffton Thursday. Robert reported a good time.

Our popular postmaster and much esteemed merchant, Peter Winters, and family, attended the fair at Bluffton Thursday.

Quite a number of our neighbors attended the L. O. O. F. picnic held at Zanesville on the 23d. A feature of the program was the fine speaking of Hon. James M. Robinson and Attorney E. V. Emrick, of Fort Wayne; Rev. Cully, of Zanesville, and Rev. Norris, of Roanoke. Music was furnished by the Zanesville band. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all who attended.

LAKE TOWNSHIP.

These are typical days of "When the frost is on the pumpkins and the fodder's in the shock." Let us appreciate them while they last.

Mr. Fred Eme, who has been working at Chicago, has returned home.

Mrs. Jacob Felger, who has been quite ill for about a week, is very much improved and we hope will soon be well.

Saddo Smith, mail clerk on the Fort Wayne road, is out on his trip. He will apply for a leave of absence so as to make a visit to the state of Kansas, where he expects to bag some big game. Sad is quite a nimrod and enjoys the sport very much. We wish him good luck and a good time.

Will and John Colter, who have been attending DePaul for the last two years, are taking a course at the International Business college, Fort Wayne. We wish them success at their new studies.

Mr. Jacob Felger, who has been at home with his parents this summer, has returned to Columbus, Ohio, where he resumes his studies in the theological department of Capital university.

The new Catholic church at Arcola is nearing completion and will soon be dedicated. It will be one of the finest church edifices in any country district.

Mr. John Blessing, a prominent young farmer of Lake township, and Hulda Kinley, of the same place, were married last week. We extend to them our heartiest congratulations and hope that life's pathway will be strewn with many Blessings.

John McCormack, who has been farming on one of Sylvester McCormack's farms, will have a sale next Saturday, one mile west of Lake Center. He will soon retire from the farm on account of ill health.

Wm. Hagan has been quite ill on account of an attack by an abscess, which formed on his nose. An operation has been performed and it is thought he will soon recover.

John Sterling, who has made his home at Hoagland for the last three years, has returned to the old homestead and will have charge of his father's farm.

Mrs. Jacob Shaffer, who has been at Wheeler, Ind., to attend the wedding of her daughter, Etta, at that place, has returned.

This year promises to be a good one for game, especially squirrels and quail. The country seems literally filled with them. The quail are very tame. They simply walk out of one's way, that is all, and the nimrods will no doubt have fine sport when the law opens. But some of our city friends had better not happen to kill any of the farmers' turkeys by mistake or otherwise, as some of them have done in the past. The farmers are thoroughly aroused and the offender will surely be prosecuted for his nefarious work if apprehended.

The Lake township Union Sunday schools held their fourth annual convention at Lake Center Sunday, Oct. 1. Many prominent speakers were present to address the meeting, which was a very large one, not all being able to get into the room provided. The choir, under the able direction of Prof. Hynt, gave very excellent music, which was much appreciated by the audience. All present were impressed that it was the best ever held in this township, and that they derived a great deal of instruction and inspiration from the day's proceedings.

The Lake township farmers will hold their fourth annual institute at Lake Center Saturday, Oct. 7. A very good program has been prepared. It is to be given by the most progressive farmers of the township and will no doubt be of very great value to all present. All who are interested are cordially invited to be present and spend a day with them.

Published to Help Women.

I have just received the Ladies' Birthday Almanac and thought I would fill out the enclosed examination blank and see if you could do anything for me, but I have about given up all hope. I have tried so many things, and have been treated by one of the best physicians in Omaha, Neb., but all in vain. My husband and I are very fond of children, and if I could become a mother I would be perfectly happy.

Perhaps you will remember a Mrs. Buffington who wrote to your Advisory Department a little more than a year ago from Otego, Kansas, asking for advice, which you so kindly gave, and for which I will never be able to thank you enough. I had suffered terribly for many years at monthly periods, and sometimes would go for almost a year with no sign of menses. We had been married eleven years, but no children had been born to us. After getting your advice, I studied the book on Home Treatment, that you sent me, and followed your directions closely. With only three bottles of McElree's Wine of Cardui and two packages of Black Drought I was entirely cured and soon after became pregnant and am expecting to be confined next month. My health is good and I even now do all my work. I can hardly realize the wonderful change that has resulted from the use of your medicine in my case, after I had given up all hope of recovery. Will help any who are afflicted as I was you are at liberty to publish it.

McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui

These earnest letters are presented to the suffering women for whom they were written, with the hope that Mrs. Buffington's appeal will not be made in vain. Her remarkable experience, honestly related, further attests: If you have irregular menstruation; if you suffer terribly every month; if you long for a baby to bless your home; if you are too sick or weak or tired to care for the children that have been born to you; if you have any of those distressing troubles known as female troubles, and really want relief, this letter shows the road to perfect health, to inexpressible joy. If you will get a bottle of the Wine of Cardui at your drug store to-day, and take the medicine as directed, it won't be a week until you will feel better. Try it.

two lines are to be constructed, one a direct line from Berlin to Paris, and the other by way of Frankfurt, so that a complete breakdown of the service between the two capitals will be a remote contingency.

Among recent requests which the Rothschilds have received none is more ludicrous than that of a young man who professes himself tired of his business of cooper, and, with promise of diligence, asks to be taken as "apprentice-millionaire."

COMPOUND ENGINE DEVELOPS
GREAT SPEED.

96 MILES IN 109 MINUTES

HAULS TEN HEAVILY LADEN
PASSENGER CARS.

BIG SHIPMENT OF MACHINERY

ELECTRIC WORKS AND BASS
WORKS THUS ENGAGED.

The Baldwin compound engines recently purchased by the Wabash continue to do good work and are fast dispelling the prejudice that has existed against that class of engines. Monday one of these big locomotives left Montpelier with the Continental limited twenty-eight minutes late and went into Detroit on time. There were ten cars in the train and all were loaded with passengers and baggage to their full capacity. The distance traveled was ninety-six miles and the train in making the run consumed 109 minutes, including all stops. The Continental limited, over that portion of the road, is scheduled at forty-two miles an hour.

CLAIM AGENTS MEET.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 4.—The Freight Claims association of the United States began its semi-annual meeting at the Shoreham today. President Graham called the meeting to order. The meeting will last two days, and will cover the subject of claims and some readjustment of the association's rules.

THE TRAIN DISPATCHER.

Columns of worthy comments have been passed as to the fortitude and good judgment of a locomotive engineer. He deserves it all. His is not only a perilous position to fill, but is also one which requires acute judgment. For the duties he is called upon to perform he is neither to be envied nor despised. However, there is another important factor in safe and successful railroading which is too frequently overlooked when important and technical positions are considered, and that is the train dispatcher. The safety of not only the passengers, but also the trainmen as well, depends largely upon the adeptness and judgment which he exercises in the fulfillment of his duty. His office is not a sinecure, either. It is tiresome, tedious and risky. At his desk in a cheerless office he sits, and with his key handles every train—passenger and freight—on his division. Every train must have a place to meet the one coming in the opposite direction, and the successful meeting of those two trains has to be provided for by the man at the dispatcher's desk. "Extras" sometimes dash out on the track almost unheralded; the dispatcher must see that the way is clear for it. Regular trains oftentimes become unavoidably delayed, and consequently are not at their regular switch or passing point in time to meet the other "regular." Something must be done to adjust the difficulty and avert disaster. This trying task falls to the train dispatcher. His knowledge, quick wits and judgment are all brought into play at once. He must act instantly or there may be an appalling catastrophe. He knows the location of every moving wheel on the track of his division; and whether they are on regular schedule time or not it is his trying duty to keep in touch with every train in its proper place at a certain time. If he does not do all this, and even sometimes more perplexing duties the trains would soon be all piled up in wrecks along the road, and the railway company would be forced to suspend business and go into liquidation. These are a few of the trying positions of the ever-important train dispatcher. Withal his position is not only quite responsible, but is also exceedingly trying. His lot is far from being an easy one, and very few people today who enjoy the comforts, conveniences of railway travel ever reckon how much they are indebted to the faithful and judicious hand that manipulates the dispatcher's key for their pleasure and safety.

FURNITURE CARS SCARCE.

There are not enough furniture cars in the country to transport the heavy traffic that has unexpectedly sprung up in that line of goods. Western furniture men have recently invaded New England territory and cannot get their wares into those states fast enough to supply the demand. The Pennsylvania company is better supplied with furniture cars than any other line in the central states, having built a number at its shops during the past year.

REPAIRING ROUND HOUSE.

The material for extensive repairs has arrived at the Nickel Plate round house and the work will commence tomorrow. New floor, smoke jacks and ventilators will take the place of the old ones, the doors and windows will be tightened and otherwise put in shape for winter and several other improvements will be made.

FAST RUN TO ST. LOUIS.

A special train was made up at Peru yesterday to carry the White-hull Guards into St. Louis in time to catch a train bound for Meriden, Miss. The regular Wabash train, No. 7, on which the Guards came down from Toledo, was over an hour late and could not make up the lost time on the run to St. Louis, hence the special. The private car carrying the Fort Wayne touring party was also a part of the special train from Peru to St. Louis. The run was made in seven hours, the average speed being 60½ miles an hour, not including stops. The train was hauled by one of the new Baldwin-Barnes engines.

TRIES A NEW ENGINE.

One of the big new Grand Rapids and Indiana engines took Pennsylvania train No. 9 from this city to Chicago last night. The train was thirty-five minutes late and an effort was made to go into Chicago on time, but the weather and other conditions did not favor fast running and the train only made up four minutes of its lost time. On the engine were Engineer Peter Reiley, Fireman E. Gillen and Motive Power Inspector Wall, of the Pennsylvania, and Traveling Fireman Shannon, of the Grand Rapids. This big engine is capable of much better work, as proven by several good runs on the Grand Rapids road.

WHITSEL'S GOOD LUCK.

N. B. Whitsel, who was recently retired from the office of traveling engineer of the Wabash and given a passenger run on the line, has been called to the Grand Trunk road by Superintendent of Motive Power Morse and placed in office similar to the one he occupied on the Wabash. Mr. Whitsel will have his headquarters at Belleville, Ont., where he will soon move his family. While rejoicing over Mr. Whitsel's good fortune in securing so desirable a position, his friends in this city will regret the necessity that takes him and his excellent family from Fort Wayne.

SNUBBED THE BROTHERHOOD.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 4.—General Manager Schaar has refused to confer with a committee of the railway operators of the Big Four system, saying he will only confer with them individually. The committee declines to take his suggestion and will consider what it is best to do. They are inclined to refer their request for a wage adjustment to the Federated Board of Railway Employees' association. Over five hundred of the 575 operators in the employ of the Big Four are members of the Order of Railway Telegraphers.

TWO EMPLOYEES HURT.

Henry Geerken, the well known boilermaker, will be off duty a few days, nursing a lame hand. Yesterday, while at work in the Pittsburgh shops, a sharp point of a smoke-box saddle ran into his wrist, puncturing an artery and producing a most painful wound, from which the blood flowed in a stream until checked. The other unfortunate was Brakeman V. Weber, who was pinched between cars at Inwood last night. His injuries are not regarded very serious, but will disable him for several days. Mr. Weber was a member of Conductor Compton's crew.

DEWEY TRAFFIC IMMENSE.

A canvas has been made of the operating officials of the six leading railroad systems entering New York, to get at an approximate estimate of the "near-by" crowds at the Dewey celebration. According to the figures just given out by the officials of these roads—viz., the Pennsylvania, New York Central and allied roads, Jersey Central, Lackawanna, Erie and West Shore—not fewer than 225,000 persons living within a radius of seventy-five miles of New York City gathered within the confines of Manhattan on Saturday, to honor the nation's hero. This immense volume of passenger traffic was distributed as follows:

Pennsylvania	80,000
New York Central and allied lines	45,000
Central Railroad of New Jersey	35,000
Lackawanna	35,000
Erie	15,000
West Shore	15,000
Total	175,000

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Pittsburgh Engineer W. C. Bender is off duty on account of sickness. Conductor U. R. Davis, who had been sick, has returned to his duties on the Nickel Plate.

T. Kress, tinner at the Pittsburgh shops, and his two sons have gone to Chicago to attend the fall festival.

A. L. Govie, who recently moved here from Grand Rapids, has secured employment at the Pittsburgh blacksmith shop.

The Bass works today shipped two 150-horse power boilers to the International Phosphate company, of Carteret, N. J.

Henry Rodenbeck, of the Bass' smith shop, is suffering from kidney troubles and will be unable to work for a few days.

Charles Watts, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania's Northwestern system, has returned from Europe and resumed work.

It is stated that the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton September earnings were the largest of any month in the road's history.

Nickel Plate Engineer P. W. Donahue is taking a lay-off to attend the street carnival and Fireman Fred Roemke is sick and off duty.

John Richard and J. Boone, of the Pittsburgh shops, are sick and George Axt, of the same shop, is kept from his work by the sickness of his wife.

Tinner J. C. Bernhardt, of the Pittsburgh shops, is taking a brief lay-off to look after some private business and to attend the barbecue.

R. H. Mauk has recovered from an attack of malarial fever which confined him three weeks. He has returned to his work in the Pittsburgh copper shop.

It is stated that the present form of mileage tickets used by the lines in the Western Passenger association is not likely to undergo any immediate change.

It was John Rupp and not John Root that was hurt at the Pittsburgh blacksmith shop yesterday. The reporter was misinformed concerning the name of the unfortunate man.

Stockholders of the Old Colony, who for thirty years past have been in the habit of journeying without charge from their homes along the lines to Boston, will hereafter have to pay their fare or walk, as a resolution was passed at the last annual meeting of the directors abolishing the custom.

Pittsburgh Fireman B. Gillen has his father as his guest. The senior Gillen resides in Marion, Ind.

Machinist H. W. Sloat, of the Pittsburgh, is visiting friends in the vicinity of Pleasant Lake, Ind.

M. R. Hardendorf, of the Pittsburgh shops, has as his guest his mother, Mrs. M. E. Hardendorf, who resides in Rome City.

Louis Stetter, of the Pittsburgh, is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. William Kirchner, of Prebble, Ind., the parents of Mrs. Stetter.

S. S. Rothrock, of the electric light works, has returned from New Albany, Ind., where he has been for the past few weeks installing an electric lighting plant for the city.

Mr. Trimble, first assistant to Chief Engineer Rodd, of the Pennsylvania company, is in the city today, looking after some business affairs that come within his province.

The directors of the Monon will this week decide whether to build the new road from Indianapolis to Oakland, on the main line, and thence to the coal fields of southwestern Indiana.

Trains are now running over forty miles of the White Pass and Yukon railroad, in Alaska, and the company engaged in the construction of the line says it will be completed next June.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Weyer and their son have returned from Delphos, O., where they visited a week. Mr. Weyer, who is a tinner, resumed work in the Pittsburgh shops this morning.

Henry Seyner, a fireman on one of the Pittsburgh local freight engines, slipped last evening on the apron in the cab and severely sprained his hips. The accident will lay him up a few days.

The sample side dump car, built at the east car shops, is finished and ready for inspection. It is quite likely that there will be more of this class of cars built this fall and the coming winter.

Brakeman William Ruback, of the Nickel Plate, is attending the Chicago festival and has taken a lay-off for that purpose. Brakeman C. Downey is laying off to attend the Fort Wayne carnival.

E. J. Kilgman, who has been employed in the Pittsburgh boiler shop for several weeks, has decided to go west and seek employment and with that object in view he resigned his position in the Pittsburgh shops this morning.

Work on the addition to the Bass blacksmith shop is greatly delayed by the failure of the lumber dealers to furnish the material on time. The lumbermen say it is impossible to get lumber of a special kind at present, so busy are the mill men.

The Chesapeake and Ohio company has 400 men engaged upon the work of building its big $1,000,000 grain elevator at Newport News, Va. The work will be pushed along as rapidly as possible in order to be ready for business after the holidays, if not before.

Pittsburgh Engineer J. E. Long has gone into Pleasant township to see his aged father, who is very sick. The old gentleman is one of the leading citizens in the southern part of the county and has served in various official capacities during his residence here.

One week from today the American Railway association will hold its fall meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York. Besides presentation of all the committees' reports there will be other important business, included being the election of some committees.

A striking showing is made by the Santa Fe in its statement for August, just published, which shows the gross earnings increased nearly $800,000 over last year, and the net earnings $700,000. The percentage of operating expenses to gross earnings was 66.6 against 63.8 in August, 1898.

The Fort Wayne Electric company today loaded for shipment the machinery for two important plants, the dynamo and the equipment making two car loads. One car load will go to Jonesboro, Ill., and the other will go to Brazil, Ind. The dynamo in the latter car is one of the largest of its character, being of 4,000 light capacity.

C. E. Barnes, of the Pittsburgh blacksmith shop, is entertaining during carnival week his brother's wife, Mrs. J. M. Barnes, and her daughter. The husband of the visiting lady is foreman of the Wabash shops at Delray, Mich., which duty he assumed a few days ago, as stated in The Sentinel. He formerly had charge of the Peru shops. Mr. Barnes was also here yesterday, leaving last night for Delray.

The first regular lesson of the School of Electricity was given in the Elektron building Tuesday evening and a large number of pupils were present. This school affords an excellent opportunity to those who are learning the electrical business.

THE WEATHER.

Chicago, Oct. 4.—For Indiana—Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday; probably threatening, with cooler in southeast portions; winds shifting to northerly.

LOCAL NEWS.

J. A. Armstrong left this morning for Denver, Col., to join his family. Joseph Mygratt left Tuesday for an extended visit with friends at and near Kokomo.

Mrs. H. Bunstein, of Goshen, is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. S. Pottlitzer and Mrs. S. Livingston.

Mrs. J. Nichols has returned from a trip to Bluffton, where she went on a matter of business.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the R. R. Y. M. C. A. will meet on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

There will be no meeting of the Dorcas society of the English Lutheran church on Friday afternoon.

Miss Mayme C. Ruffell, accompanied by her mother, left for Chicago today for a week's visit.

Miss Dorothy Witte and Miss Rose Buschling have returned from a two weeks' visit at Toledo and Detroit.

P. L. Potter is in Cincinnati on a trip in which he will combine business with pleasure. He will be gone two weeks.

Miss Marie Bomberg, of Terre Haute, Ind., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Gaskins, of West Creighton avenue.

Reuben Yarian and Miss Carrie Grover, of Jefferson township, were united in marriage Tuesday by Justice Tancey.

Mrs. Walter Bedman and Mrs. Ambrose Ward will attend the fall festival in Chicago. They left for that city this morning.

Engineer W. L. Scott and daughter, Miss Bertha, have returned from a three weeks' visit with friends and relatives in New York and Jersey City.

The Ladies of the Third Presbyterian church will hold a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Sinclair, at 109 West DeWald street, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

Mrs. Marion Smith, wife of one of the most prominent of Marion township farmers, left this morning for Chicago, where she expects to spend ten days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Valentine and son, Arthur, of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Burgett, of Paris, Ill., are visiting D. F. Valentine, of East Washington street.

C. F. Taylor left Tuesday for Joplin, Mo., after a visit with friends in this city. Mr. Taylor is interested in zinc mines there, and may soon return to Fort Wayne to organize a company to operate them.

The waste paper boxes which were purchased by the Woman's Club league are being placed at prominent corners about the city, and the municipal authorities will see that they are emptied at regular intervals.

Evangelical services are being held at the St. Paul's M. E. church each evening this week. The services grow in interest each evening. This evening's services opens at 7:30 and will be conducted by the pastor.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Simpson M. E. church will hold their monthly meeting Thursday afternoon, at 2:30, at the home of Mrs. Wright, 175 Fairfield avenue. A full attendance is desired.

Over the door of J. C. Peltier's undertaking establishment is the word "Welcome" in flag letters. No doubt the intention is good, but it is to be hoped that none will have to take advantage of the invitation in a business way during the festivities.

THE FREE METHODISTS MEET.

ANNUAL SESSIONS OF THIS CONFERENCE

Now Being Held in Creighton Avenue Church—Bishop Sellow

Is Presiding.

The Free Methodists are holding a conference at the Free Methodist church, on East Creighton avenue, this afternoon. The proceedings opened at 2 o'clock, Rev. Bishop Sellow, of Jamestown, N. Y., presiding.

There was a good attendance of ministers, delegates and visitors, and a great deal of interest was manifested in the proceedings. The conference will last over the coming Sabbath and the daily meetings will commence each morning at 8:30 and a large attendance is anticipated.

There will be services every afternoon and evening. The district embraced by this conference lies in the district bounded by the Ohio and Illinois lines and from the Michigan line south to Indianapolis. Bishop Sellow, who arrived in the city Tuesday evening, who is well known in religious and educational circles, was at one time the head of the Spring Arbor college and was afterward with the North Chili seminary, of North Chili, N. Y. He will make several interesting addresses during the sessions of the conference.

Of a shipment of 396 bullocks recently forwarded from Buenos Ayres to Liverpool 123 died during the voyage. In a suit growing out of the matter in the commercial court of London Justice Matthew held that ninety-seven of the animals were lost in consequence of the negligence of the vessel's owners.

Just when the day became divided into hours is not known, nor is the process explained. The Greeks and Romans measured time by the water glass and the sun dial. The hour glass, filled with sand, was the outgrowth of these vessels, from which the sand dripped through a tiny opening.

An expert has risen to explain that stage fright really comes from a disordered stomach. He argues from this that persons meditating public appearances should be careful of their diet and adhere to regular habits.

HOME FOR EMERGENCIES.

The Home for Emergencies is frequently called upon to take temporary charge of children whose natural guardians, on account of sickness or other causes, cannot for a time care for them. In nearly every instance the children come to the home very poorly and scantily clothed and the matron is sorely puzzled to know how to make them either comfortable or presentable.

The board of managers would like to have a supply of clothing for children five years old and under kept at the home for such emergencies, and takes this means of asking any of its friends who may be willing to donate second-hand clothing ready for wear, or new clothing, to send the same to the Home for Emergencies, 144 Fritchard street. If it should be inconvenient to send the package, a postal directed to the home, with the address, will insure its being called for.

The Relief union has in its care families who lack the things absolutely necessary to make a home livable, such as beds, bedding, cooking utensils, chairs, etc. Those who have anything connected with house-keeping for which they have no further use, but which can be used at all, will be doing good by sending them to the Relief union, 148 Fritchard street, or by sending word where they can be obtained.

By order of Fort Wayne Relief Union.
